Bookies Aided By Housewives

NEW YORK (AP) — Police have launched a crackdown against housewives who use telephones to aid bookmakers and earn up to $100 a week.

Police Commissioner Michael J. Murphy disclosed Tuesday that 24 housewives have been arrested in seven weeks for operating illegal telephone answering services from their homes while hubby is at work and the kids are in school.

Police say the housewives pick up tax-free pin money of from $50 to $100 a week for their simple services. While making the beds, washing the dishes or vacuuming the rugs, they answer the telephone and take down a message from a $2-and-up bettor.

Murphy said the women don't actually take any bets.

The messages for the bookies may be something like: "Call Joe at such-and-such a number."

Periodically, the bookie calls the housewife and picks up his messages. He then calls the bettors, takes the bets and gives a fictional name for a housewife and a telephone number to call the next day for another round in the operation.

Baker Testimony Branded As 'Unworthy Of Belief'

Stormy Senate Quiz Ends With Hint Of Perjury

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democratic senators have stamped "unworthy of belief" the secret testimony of a key witness in the Bobby Baker investigation — and made that the epitaph of their long and stormy inquiry.

That judgment was based on a Justice Department report of FBI findings on a stream of accusations leveled by Maryland insurance man Don B. Reynolds.

It came late Tuesday from the Democratic majority of the Senate Rules Committee, over the protesting votes of three Republicans.

Sent To Grand Jury

At the same closed session, the Rules Committee voted to ask that the Justice Department send Reynolds' sworn testimony along with the FBI findings, to a federal grand jury to determine whether there is a basis for a perjury indictment.

The committee also asked that all the testimony it has heard during the politically charged investigation be sent to the grand jury to determine whether anybody should be indicted for perjury.

Reynolds named President Johnson, Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana, Rules Committee Chairman B. Everett Jordan, D-N.C., Sen. Howard W. Cannon, D-Nev., Sen. George A. Smathers, D-Fla., and a cast of other men in public and private life in his closed testimony last Dec. 1. The FBI interviewed people who denied each accusation he made.

Bag Full Of Money

Reynolds, a business associate of Baker, said the former secretary to the Senate's Democratic majority who resigned under fire in October 1963 told him of a $100,000 payoff on the controversial TFX warplane contract.

He talked of influence allegedly brought to bear on other defense contracts, and of "a big sex party" in a New York hotel.

Reynolds' testimony itself was not made public. Sections of it were quoted in the Justice Department report filed by Atty. Gen. Nicholas Katzenbach.

In one, Reynolds talked of a bag full of money and the TFX contract. The report told it this way:

"Reynolds said 'I was in Bobby's office and he said to me 'Did you see that man going out of the office,' and I said 'Yes.' And he said 'That is Mr. Evans,' to the best of my recollection, the president of Grumman Aircraft. And he said 'Do you see this flight bag on my desk, this blue bag?' and I said 'Yes.'

"Leader" Intercedes

"He said 'Would you like to see what is in it?' I said 'Open it.' And he opened it up and there were hundred-dollar bills. . .and he says '$100,000 for the TFX contract.'

"Reynolds said that Baker then told him 'that the leader had interceded to make sure that TFX was awarded to General Dynamics Corp.'

"According to Reynolds, Baker explained 'that the Grumman Aircraft would be awarded a substantial subcontract amount by bringing money to Baker.'

"Reynolds added 'And while I was in Baker's office, sir. . . Margaret Tucker came in and said, 'The vice president is on the phone.' No, she said, 'The leader.' I'm sorry, sir, she said, 'The leader is on the phone, your leader, and he wants you to come up immediately.' So he says, 'I'm sorry, Don, I can't talk to you any more about it. I have got all these things.' And he grabbed the blue bag and left."

Johnson was majority leader of the Senate before he became vice president.

Having recounted that testimony, the FBI reported other people involved denied it. Baker was not among those interviewed.

But Llewellyn J. Evans, senior vice president of Grumman, said he never went to Baker's office and never paid Baker "$100,000 or any other sum of money for any purpose whatsoever."

Expense Items Of Senate Run Into Millions

WASHINGTON (AP) — Many odd, unrelated and fascinating facts about the Senate came to light today with the publication of a six-month report by its secretary, Felton M. Johnson.

For example:

The Senate spent $2.66 million on "miscellaneous" items, which is more than the $2,471,000 the members and the vice president draw in pay.

It costs $58,370 to transport members from Washington to their homes twice a session.

Phones Come High

Last July the Senate bought 72 whiskbrooms for $38.88 and spent $11.88 having its service knives sharpened and $25.85 repairing its sewing machine. Unaccountably, it also invested $27.90 in alpaca coats and $449.05 in 25 blankets in that steaming month.

The Senate library, playing it safe after the July Republican national convention, bought two copies each of two books about Barry Goldwater. The total outlay was $3.50.

Last July was a busy month and the senators used up $46,722 in long-distance telephoning while paying out $33.538 for local phone service. The bill for official telegrams, rendered in August, ran to $62,953.

July and August often found the senators and their staffs thirsty. The Senate was billed $479 for bottled water in July and $688 in August.

Stationery $2,400

Going social, the Senate Foreign Relations Committee put on a series of luncheons for visiting dignitaries. The layout for Chancellor Ludwig Erhard of West Germany ran $339.78. But the committee got by with $3.60 in party snacks when it entertained Foreign Minister Z. A. Bhutto of Pakistan.

Senators get $2,400 a year in stationery allowance. What they don't use they can keep. But the Internal Revenue Service has decreed they must pay income taxes on the residue.

In the period covered by Johnson's report, Sen. John Sparkman, D-Ala., apparently was low on stationery and used up $2,206.45 of his allowance. Sen. Len B. Jordan, R-Idaho, seemed to have been well stocked. He drew only $5.82 worth.

Johnson Housing Program Promised Prompt Action

WASHINGTON (AP) — Key members of Congress pledged today to get to work promptly on President Johnson's housing recommendations. Some of the proposals appear to face strong opposition.

The program will be split into two parts at the Capitol, with the housing programs going to the Banking Committees and the proposal for a new Cabinet department of housing and urban development to Government Operations.

The Senate appeared likely to take the lead on both.

Sen. Abraham A. Ribicoff, D-Conn., who will conduct the hearings on the proposed new department, said this legislation "will be given the highest priority."

Sen. John Sparkman, D-Ala., Housing subcommittee chairman, said he expected hearings on the far-reaching housing proposals to be started in two or three weeks and to be extensive.

President John F. Kennedy tried and failed in 1962 to win conversion of the Housing and Home Finance Agency to a Cabinet- level department.

Democratic leaders rate Johnson's chances as better this year, largely because of a much larger Democratic majority in the House. That's where Kennedy's proposal was killed.

The vote in the Senate government Operations Committee is likely to be close with the chairman, Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., opposed to the legislation. However, Ribicoff thinks he can get it approved there.

There are two Democratic vacancies on the committee. The bill's prospects will depend on who fills them.

Two parts of the broad housing program are expected to cause the most controversey.

One would establish a new program of rent supplements for needy and low-income families.

The other would provide a variety of aids for new towns and planned subdivisions in large metropolitan areas.

The recommendations for extension of existing programs, such as public housing, urban renewal, and college dormitory loans, are expected to win approval.

Talks Shifted To Pittsburgh In Can Strike

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Negotiations to settle a strike against two of the nation's largest can companies shift to Pittsburgh Thursday where they will coincide with a flurry of activity surrounding talks in the bigger and more crucial basic steel industry.

William E. Simkin, director of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service, announced Tuesday the talks would be transferred from New York.

He didn't say so, but it apparently is a concession to the United Steelworkers Union which with nearly a million members, is the nation's third largest union.

The USW already has one strike on against the can companies, a strike deadline racing nearer in basic steel, and negotiations upcoming in the fabricating, mining and independent steel industries.

On top of it all the union is torn by an internal struggle that already has been blamed for the can strike.

Simkin said both sides in that strike have agreed to meet in Pittsburgh with federal mediators at 10 a.m. Thursday.

It will be the first session since an apparently fruitless one Monday, the day 32,000 steelworkers struck the American and Continental Can companies' plants in this country, Canada and Puerto Rico. The strike involves a dispute over pay and other benefits in a new contract.

About the same time the can negotiators meet, USW negotiators in the basic steel industry will be meeting. Later Thursday the union team is expected to meet with its industry counterpart to discuss the probable resumption of their long-delayed talks.

Kremlin Jolted By U.S. Bombing

By The Associated Press

American bombs that fell on North Viet Nam seem to have shaken far-off Moscow. What is happening in Viet Nam could cause new trouble inside the Kremlin.

Moscow's reaction to the bombing has been one of nervousness. Its response suggests that the present Soviet regime is trying to sit tight, watch and wait, and perhaps seize an opportunity if one presents itself, to take a hand in Southeast Asia. But the restraint of Soviet protests indicates the regime hopes it will not have to do anything desperate.

The Kremlin seems a little stunned by it all. The regime — notably elements of the Communist party represented by First Secretary Leonid I. Brezhnev — reflects anxiety to avoid being too deeply involved at a time when it has little control over events in Asia. Perhaps it is hoping a situation will evolve which will give the Soviet Union more control.

Moscow denounces the U.S. raids angrily. It must do so, since the attacks are against a country ruled by communism. It makes threatening noises but gives no hint of readiness to do much else at this time.

However, the developments can supply ammunition to hard-line conservatives in the Soviet party and military who disliked the idea of "peaceful coexistence" to begin with, because it implied cutbacks in military expenditures. These elements now can apply pressure to step up military outlay at the expense of Brezhnev's program to raise Soviet living standards.

Course Gets Difficult

The bombs fell while Communists from 18 nations met with Soviet party members to consider the split bedeviling the Red world. The Chinese scorned the meeting and now will have a chance to claim they were right all along, that peaceful coexistence is impossible.

The Soviet regime has tried to deflect some of the enormous expense of heavy industry — which builds military power — into consumer channels. The Chinese denounce this as leading toward capitalism. As the Viet Nam situation grows tenser, the Soviet course becomes more difficult to maintain.

Senate Discards Romney's Budget

LANSING (AP) — The Senate killed Gov. George Romney's budget Tuesday but Democratic legislative leaders told the governor they will consider all its key elements and will avoid a logjam of bills at the end of the session.

The Senate action came on a string of party line votes. It followed an hour-long meeting at which majority leader Sen. Raymond Dzendzel, D-Detroit, and House Speaker Joseph Kowalski, D-Detroit, tried to clarify with Romney their differences over budget-killing plans.

Senate Republicans lost out on moves to delay the budget rejection. Angry words were exchanged but Democrats said it was all right with them if Republicans reintroduce Romney's budget package. Late printing forced a delay until Monday on disposition of one of the 13 budget bills.

The House plans to kill the bills in the next several days.

Kowalski walked out near the end of a news conference with Romney after a brief verbal exchange with the governor. But both sides said the session had been helpful.

Romney said they agreed a last-minute pile-up of bills — especially budget measures— must be avoided.

They remained at odds over whether it is sound practice to consider new money programs before passing the budget for existing functions.

Will Avoid Jam

Root of the problem is a constitutional provision that the governor's budget bills must be accepted or rejected before any money item not mentioned in the budget can be considered.

Democrats have other programs they want to consider. So they will report the budget bills from committee, kill them and send similar bills back for genuine consideration.

They said a logjam will result if other bills have to be held up for the budget. Romney feared a logjam if new budget bills had to be introduced.

"I've been given assurance by the legislative leadership its intention is to avoid last-minute consideration of bills and a logjam. I appreciate the commitment I've received that consideration will be given to the executive budget," he said.

Kowalski said, "there's a difference between the budget and the bills. I think the governor misunderstood our procedure. We're still going to use that budget book of his."

Pope Opens Lenten Season

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope Paul VI marked the sign of the cross in ashes on his forehead today, leading the world's half billion Roman Catholics into the Lenten season of penitence, prayer and fasting.

The Pope's observance of the Ash Wednesday ritual, signifying human frailty and humility, occurred during a Mass he celebrated in his private chapel in the Apostolic Palace. The pontiff also marked the foreheads of his secretaries, aides and chamberlains with ashes.

Around the world Catholics stopped briefly at their churches to receive the ashes. They are made from palms from the previous Palm Sunday which are burned and mixed with chrism, or sacred oil.

The priest administering the ashes says a prayer reminding the recipient that man is made from dust and will one day return to dust, a warning for him to do 'penance and prepare for his end.

The 40-day Lenten period ends with the joyous Christian feast of Easter, celebrating Christ's Resurrection, April 18.

Business Boom Begins 5th Year

WASHINGTON (AP) — The astonishingly durable business boom, entering its fifth year this week, will become the longest peacetime expansion in history if it continues into May.

If that happens, only the World War II boom, 6 years and 8 months, will surpass the current expansion.

In April the present boom will have lasted 50 months — exactly the duration of the slow, low-grade 1933-37 climb from the depth of the Great Depression. That upward struggle, hardly an expansion at all, ended with 10 million still jobless.

By contrast, the 48 months just ended have brought unprecedented gains in production and incomes, virtually without inflation, while reducing unemployment from 6.7 per cent to 4.8 per cent.

By an almost equally striking contrast, the steady 1961-5 growth has been virtually free of the inflation which marred the 80-month World War II boom.

Secretary of Commerce John T. Connor Tuesday rejected the possibility of any early downturn. The economy is marching ahead smartly, he said, paced by massive output of steel and autos.

Connor discounted fears of a slump after midyear. Many suspect this might occur if industry's massive build-up of steel inventories, as a hedge against a steel strike, is followed by a sudden halt in buying because of a quick wage settlement.

Oversized steel inventories will have less impact than in past years of strike threats, Connor said, because of the rapid rate of consumption this year.

The secretary broke another bit of good news: Planned industry outlays for plant and equipment this year will be $2 billion to $3 billion bigger than previously estimated. A new private survey indicates a 12 to 14 per cent rise this year, Connor said, instead of the 8 per cent foreseen a few months ago.

Connor's optimism reinforced the official view that the recovery will last into 1966. Whether it also can endure through 1967, and thus erase even the wartime record for sustained growth, remains to be seen.

Staebler Will Be Challenged For Party Post

DETROIT (AP) — Stuart E. Hertzberg, the state Democratic Party's finance chairman, today announced plans to challenge Neil Staebler and others for the post of Michigan national committeeman.

Hertzberg, a Detroit attorney, said he would seek the post which would become vacant if incumbent John B. Swainson wins election to the Wayne County Circuit bench. Swainson is unopposed in the April 5 election.

In addition to Staebler, a former national committeeman and unsuccessful candidate for governor last year, others seeking the post are Gordon M. Traye, deputy secretary of state; State Treasurer Sanford Brown; and former Calhoun County Chairman Richard Stout.

Alaska Mountain May Be Named For 1865 Hero

JUNEAU, Alaska (AP) — A 10,415-foot mountain in Alaska may be named for a Civil War soldier who saved the life of Secretary of State William H. Seward the night President Abraham Lincoln was assassinated.

The State Geographic Board recommended Tuesday a peak in the Chugach Mountains be named for Sgt. George F. Robinson.

Robinson, assigned to nurse Seward, who had been injured in an accident, foiled an attempt to kill Seward April 14, 1865, the night Lincoln was shot.

Two years later, Seward engineered the purchase of Alaska from Russia.

'One Of The Boys' After 25 Years, Says Lady Solon

WASHINGTON (AP) — After 25 years in the House, Rep. Frances E. Bolton says she no longer is thought of by her colleagues as a congresswoman "but as just one of the boys."

That, she said in response to anniversary tributes Tuesday, is what she appreciates most. It makes for "good statesmanship, good sense and the marvelous camaraderie we have in this House," said the Ohio Republican.

Girls Trained In Bullfighting

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Charlene Abernathy, 43, anxious to share her knowledge of bullfighting with others of her sex, brandished a pair of horns and pretended to be a charging bull.

A score of young women watched. They appeared in Griffith Park in answer to Miss Abernathy's advertisement for girls interested in learning the art of bloodless bullfighting.

Miss Abernathy, a slim, tailored blonde, says she has given bullfighting exhibitions in Mexico, where she learned the matador's technique. She said she hopes to train a team to tour the United States demonstrating the art.

"After two months of training," said Miss Abernathy, "we'll be ready for the first live animal. Later we'll get around to real fighting bulls — about 700 pounds on the hoof."

"But," said Lora Davis, 22, a model and a student bullfighter, "they'll have padded horns, like in Portugal."

"Of course," said Miss Abernathy. "Crowds love to see us thrown — but not gored."

Surplus Corn Asked For Deer

LANSING (AP) — To prevent large starvation losses among snowbound deer in the western Upper Peninsula, the Conservation Department asked Tuesday for 1,000 bushels of federal surplus corn to feed the deer.

The department said acute foot shortages have developed for herds in Gogebic, Ontonagon, Houghton, Baraga, Keweenaw and Iron counties and Marquette County north of M 28.

The situation developed, it said, despite commercial logging operations and special tree-cutting projects by the department.

The problem could be more serious if a threatened storm hits western Upper Michigan in the next few days.

Local groups and individuals would distribute the surplus grain from the U.S. Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service. The department does not have the manpower to handle the actual deer-feeding work.

The department said deer in other areas of the state are expected to have few food problems unless winter lingers with especially severe conditions.

Hawaii Charms Many Visitors

The Hawaiian Islands, discovered by Capt. Cook in 1887, are being "discovered" each year by an increasing number of tourists, mostly from North America.

Dr. N. L. Lindquist of Escanaba, who with Mrs. Lindquist recently returned from Hawaii, told the Escanaba Rotary Club on Tuesday that 550,000 visitors were welcomed by Hawaii last year — and that it is expected the total will reach 1 million by 1970.

The Lindquists visited their daughter, Karen, who is employed in Hawaii, as part of their Pacific vacation.

Illustrating his talk with color slides, and reporting on some aspects of the Hawaiian scene with amusing insight, Dr. Lindquist entertained and informed his audience with what he described as "an educational program."

The string of islands was born millions of years ago in mid-Pacific by the eruption of volcanoes on the ocean floor. Highest peak on Hawaii is 14,000 feet. They are believed to have ben settled perhaps 1,000 years ago.

The year of 1892 marked the ending of rule by "kings" and Hawaii became a republic. Statehood was sought for years but was delayed by opposition of sugar interests of the island, Rotarians were told.

Now with a population of about 700,000, Hawaii is building rapidly toward the million mark in tourist visitors annually. There were 50,000 visitors in 1950 and this increased to 550,000 in 1964. There are about 200 air flights a week into Hawaii.

The Rotary Club meeting was conducted by Robert Haack, president. The club elected to membership Thomas J. Straebel, manager of the Escanaba office of the Michigan Bell Telephone Co.

First Moscow Discount Store Boosts Sales

MOSCOW (AP) — "How's business?" The director of what is probably Russia's most unusual store was asked. He smiled. So far sales were running 40 per cent above normal, he said.

Moscow's first discount house appeared to be off to a flying start.

Women jostled each other to get at goods cut to half price. They fought for attention from sales girls. It looked like any normal sale in the Western world.

But in Moscow the scene reflected a commercial revolution, aimed at solving a Soviet economic problem.

The people continually clamor for more and better consumer goods. By official statistics, however, about 20 per cent of goods produced last year were left unsold.

Shoppers passed up ready-made clothes, rolls of fabric, cameras, radios, footwear, and other goods. Some were old-fashioned or poorly made. Some were good quality goods, overproduced by central plans which ignored demand. Others, under the state pricing system, cost too much.

The problem of unsold goods was important enough to receive the personal attention of Premier Alexei N. Kosygin.

In his budget speech Dec. 9, Kosygin announced that a series of special stores would be opened to offer unsold goods at cut prices.

Kosygin visited the first discount store Dec. 29 to inspect preparations for the opening, the director, Josef B. Rzhavsky, said.

New Techniques

The store, a half-hour ride by subway and bus from the Kremlin in central Moscow, was first opened in 1963 as department store No. 50. It was converted into a discount house in December and reopened in January.

For the first few days, Rzhavsky said, sales were 40 per cent above the average three-day period under the old system.

Several new sales techniques were introduced including:

—A sign over the exit saying "Thank you for your purchase."

—Installment credit buying, coupled with reduced prices.

—Advertising in the form of announcements in newspapers, radio and television, and posters calling attention to the price cuts.

—Self-service counters where, for example, a shopper can open a drawer, pick out buttons, drop the required coins in a box, and leave.

Rzhavsky has the authority to cut prices even further if goods do not sell. But he said he is not allowed to offer gifts, two for the price of one, or other gimmicks to boost sales.

Some prices are still high, despite markdowns of 10 to 70 per cent.

A man's one-button suit of cheap wool, for example, was reduced from $156 to $97.23. The suit is considered out of style but still it costs the bulk of an average monthly salary of $111.

Premier Returns

MOSCOW (AP) — Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin returned to Moscow today after a four-day visit to East Germany.

Kosygin attended the annual Leipzig spring trade fair and spent one day in East Berlin.

Bark River To Vote March 12

Voters of the Bark River-Harris School District will go to the polls Friday, March 12 to vote on continuation of the present 3.5 mill tax levy for school operating purposes.

The 3.5 mills expired with the current tax collection. The Bark River-Harris Board of Education is asking the voters permission to continue the present tax for another three years, 1965, 1966, and 1967. As a yes vote will not result in a tax increase, only a continuation of the tax and good support is hoped for, said Supt. Richard Hendra.

The 3.5 mills accounts for 6½ per cent of the current years operating funds. It also allows the district to fully participate in the Michigan state aid program. A loss of these funds would be disastrous to the Bark River-Harris Schools, said Hendra.

As this is a millage election, all registered voters of the Bark River-Harris School District are eligible to vote. The polls will be open on Friday, March 12, from 7 a. m. to 8 p. m.

Retired Engineer, William Sharkey Of Nadeau Dies

William J. Sharkey, 70, of Nadeau, father of Richard Sharkey of Escanaba, died Monday at 6:45 a. m. at St. Joseph-Lloyd Hospital, Menominee. He was a retired engineer for the Milwaukee Road.

Suriviving are his wife, Mae; two sons, Airman First Class William J. Sharkey, who is stationed in Germany, and Richard; two daughters, Mrs. Arnold (Grace) Buck, Marinette, and Mrs. Theresa Murray, Nadeau; seven grandchildren.

Funeral services which Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sharkey will attend will be held Thursday at 9 a. m. CST, at St. Bruno's Church in Nadeau. The body is at Diehm Funeral Home, Stephenson, where the rosary vigil will be held at 8:30 p. m. CST, today.

Friends of the family may call at the Degnan chapel after 3 p. m. today.

Ice May Delay Shipping Start

Zero weather just before the recent thaw thickened ice on bays and channels of the Upper Great Lakes, according to the ice report issued by the U. S. Weather Bureau, Detroit.

"The forecast for opening dates for the various harbors will be issued next Monday," according to the report, which is prepared by the Weather Bureau with the cooperation of the U. S. Coast Guard and other agencies.

"It seems reasonable at this time to anticipate later opening dates than last year" because of the ice-making cold weather in February, the report indicates.

Lake Superior ports are all ice-bound; Lake Michigan has had an increase in ice depths; Green Bay is full of smooth blue ice generally 24 to 32 inches; and the Straits of Mackinac has some drift ice at the entrance to Lake Huron.

At Escanaba the ice is about 36 inches maximum, at Menominee 30 inches, and the Ann Arbor car ferries to Frankfort are not operating.

Bridge Traffic In February Off

ST. IGNACE—For the first time since last August traffic and revenues for the Mackinac Bridge showed a decline in comparison with the corresponding month of the preceding year, said Prentiss M. Brown, Bridge Authority chairman.

"The decrease was expected since February of 1964 contained an extra day which becomes significant during light winter traffic. Less than 2 per cent of our annual traffic occurs in February. On the other hand next to last year it was the best February we've had," said Brown.

Traffic was down 7.7 per cent from 26,183 vehicles during February of 1964 to 24,175 crossings this year. Revenues were down 7.9 per cent from $133,378 to $122,812. Truck traffic was off 10.6 per cent.

WORLD'S RECORD LOW

Lowest barometric pressure ever recorded in the world was 25.90 inches in a typhoon 600 miles northwest of Guam on Sept. 24, 1958.

'65 CHEVROLET
These great performers are the lowest priced models at our One-Stop Shopping Center

Top to bottom: Chevy II 100, Corvair 500, Chevelle 300, Chevrolet Biscayne. All 2-door models.

Hard to tell at a glance that each of these beauties is the lowest priced in its line. The ride doesn't show it. Or the interior. Or the performance. Just the price sticker.

That luxurious '65 Biscayne has the room of many expensive cars. Plus a handsome color-keyed interior with plush vinyls, fine fabrics, full deep-twist carpeting.

Chevelle, America's favorite intermediate-size car, has clean new styling, wide-opening doors, roomy, tastefully trimmed interior, and all the easy-care features of the big Chevrolet.

Chevy II got a whole lot smarter for '65—but kept its common sense! Still family-size, easy to handle, economical, and the lowest priced Chevrolet out.

Both Corvair Sport Coupe and Sport Sedan have the international flavor of a rear engine hardtop, promise fun for the months ahead.

Chevrolet, Chevelle and Chevy II are available with the economical Turbo-Thrift Six engine. It's economical, warms up quickly, idles silently. It's light, efficient, quiet, and spirited.

Corvair's rear-mounted Turbo-Air Six delivers the best balance and traction for this size car. It's air-cooled—no water or antifreeze.

So be practical. Check the great offer on your old car, the low payments on your new one. Only you will know how practical you've been. Because it sure won't show!

Better Vision Needed Today

Great-grandfather may have proudly claimed his eyesight was as good at the age of 80 as at 20, but today's vision care specialists say great-grandfather's feat was more legendary than fact.

Disregarding the changes in visual abilities brought on by the very process of aging, which of itself requires proper care of sight, the stresses and requirements placed on the use of our eyes in "space age" living demand maximum visual performance, warns Dr. Robert Britton, president of the Michigan Optometric Association.

During the week of March 7-13, designated by Congress and Presidential Proclamation as national "Save Your Vision Week," the nation is being called upon to literally "look to your eyes" to safeguard this irreplaceable sense.

Expressing the very vital need of every individual to conserve and protect his vision in terms of national warning signs, the Michigan Optometric Association cites:

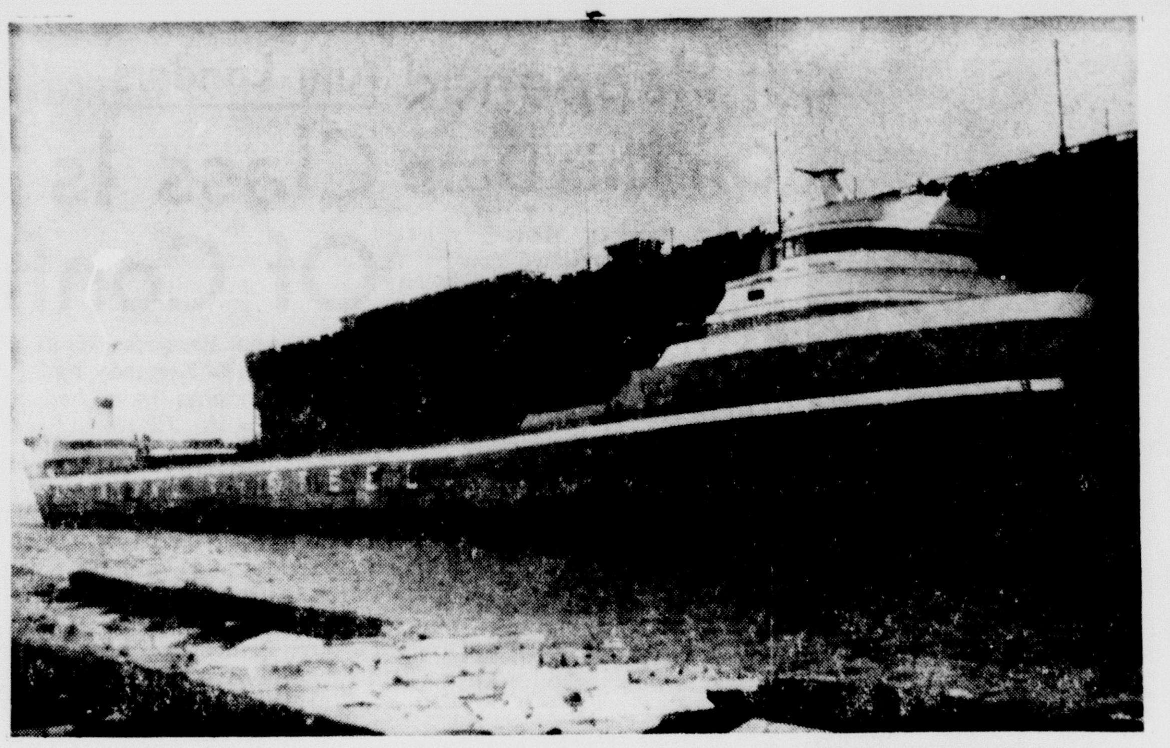
At least one out of every four children of school age has some kind of eye trouble today. Most of the visual screening surveys throughout the country indicate that 20 to 40 per cent of the students need vision care for their academic studies.

One out of every five high school and college athletes have poor vision — enough to affect his play — according to a recent study.

Eye defects and diseases ranked as the fourth major cause for the disqualification of young men being examined for induction into the Armed Forces during the five year period.

Four out of every 10 employees were found to have vision inadequate for their jobs in a survey of employees of 50 companies. Of all those with faulty vision, few had any idea or knowledge of their visual defects which were resulting in poor efficiency, loss of production, and higher accident rates.

An estimated two million persons behind the wheels of cars on the nation's highways are physically unfit to drive. Traffic experts say inability to see properly is regarded as a major cause of this alarming condition.



THE CARRIER Edward L. Ryerson of the Inland Steel Co. fleet, one of the giants of Great Lakes ships, backs away from the Chicago & North Western Railway dock in Escanaba after loading a partial cargo of 16,000 tons of ore for Indiana Harbor.

Ryerson Tests Big Laker Plan

With a 1,000-foot lake freighter forecast in view of the building of a 1,200-fot lock at Sault Ste. Marie, steamship owners are increasingly interested in the longitudal strength requirements of her hull.

They already were interested in how "wave-resistant" are the hulls of existing ships, of which the maximum length is 730 feet.

Studies of the projected superfreighter offer the promise of reduction in the cost of shipbuilding, plus an increase in carrying capacity in both present and projected vessels.

"Guinea pig" in a $140,000 study of the stresses produced in a ship fighting a storm will be the huge Edward L. Ryerson, of Inland Steel Co.

The Ryerson, a maximum-size lake carrier, was built in 1960, but still is the latest new merchant ship built on the U. S. side of the Great Lakes.

She is being equipped with scientific apparatus to test her reaction to waves in Lake Superiod and Michigan. A semi-frequent visitor to Escanaba, she usually sails those lakes, and they are the ones on which the U. S. Lake Survey installed four of its five fixed wave recorders last year.

The project, which originated with the U. S. Coast Guard, is described for the Society of Naval Architects and Marine Engineers (SNAME) by C. E. Tripp, of Cleveland. He is president of Marine Consultants & Designers Inc., which designed the Ryerson.

The Lake Carriers' Association has pledged $47,000 for instruments on the Ryerson this season, and funds for another year are sought from the U. S. Maritime Administration.

SNAME is financing tank testing of a model of the Ryerson and a model of a projected 900-foot vessel.

Stress gauges will be installed on both sides of the Ryerson forward, amidships and aft, in the tunnels through which the crew walks in bad weather. The instruments are automatic, but during the severe weather of October and November a stress expert will ride the ship.

Meanwhile, jointed wooden ship models in a test tank in Hokoben, N. J., will ride out the same storms as the Ryerson, but on small scale.

Final step in the program will be analysis and interpretation of data, a job sponsored by the American Bureau of Shipping.

Tripp said that Canada is far ahead on a similar study. Three big ships, fully instrumented for the study, will operate throughout the 1965 season.

They are the bulk carrier Seaway Queen and self-unloader Cape Breton Miner, both of Upper Lakes Shipping Ltd., and motorship Saguenay, of Canada Steamship Lines.

BROOKLYNITES IN 'FOREIGN' CITY

MIAMI (AP) — "A little bit of Brooklyn in Havana, U.S.A.," says a sign in front of a Miami restaurant.

Displayed in a window of the restaurant are street signs such as "Flatbush Avenue." They make former Brooklynites homesick.

Surrounding the establishment, operated by Julius Grossman, an ex-Brooklynite, are Cuban stores, which abound in this exile haven.

Federal Civilian Payroll Shrinks

WASHINGTON (AP) — A congressional group reported that the federal civilian payroll dropped by 21,759 in January.

The Senate-House Committee on Reduction of Non-Essential Federal Expenditures fixed the January figure at 2,464,012 persons.

The decline included 18,211 Commerce Department employes, hired on a temporary basis to take the 1964 census of agriculture.

Salty City Lies Under Detroit

DETROIT (AP)—A ghost-like city complete with its own network of four-lane highways lies 1,000 feet beneath the heart of industrial Detroit unknown to most of the Motor City's 1.6 million residents.

The underground "city',, with 50 miles of its own roads, is the gigantic salt mine operation of the International Salt Mine Co.

Relatively, few people know the wonders of the subsurface salt mine.

The miners and company officials seldom number more than 100, no more than is necessary to convert the mine's sodium chloride into usable salt.

Windless and dust free, the underground city has an unwavering climate of 57 degrees and a humidity of 56 per cent the year round.

The salty ceiling is 25 feet overhead. Mined-out passageways show up in the lowered beams of the truck's headlights.

Breaking up the vast area are 60-by-80-foot pillars of salt—the only supports for tons of rock and city buildings above. Between the pillars stretch the "rooms," 50 feet wide and sometimes several thousand feet in length.

The pattern is a complex maze in which a newcomer could easily get lost.

At one end of the mine area, pounding machinery grades and grinds the salt as it flows in seemingly endless rivers of white along conveyor belts.

At the other end, beneath suburban Melvindale or Dearborn some 3½ miles away, railroad trains are heard rattling past overhead on a quiet day.

Driving down one of the mine's unlighted "highways" leaves the impression it's a desolate country road, covered lightly with new snow (that's salt) and cut through a rocky hill.

As shofts change, the miners ride large skip hoists, which normally lift 10-ton loads of salt to the surface in 70 seconds. otherwise, this travel is done in double-deck circular cages.

The cages, about as big around as oil drums and low enough to bump a visitor's yellow, hard-hat, zoom down the iron-lined shafts with a rush of air.

Visiting the vast, white, man-made cavern is a trip to an odd, new world, though with modern social conveniences.

There is giant earthmoving equipment, some pieces with wheels higher than a man's head. There are power substations and underground lunchrooms.

A huge, studded wheel in seconds grinds a half-ton boulder of salt into pebbles.

The final crushing stage is done with a multilevel conglomeration of pulleys, conveyor belts, vibrating screens and groaning machinery.

Snow Fuddles Big St. Bernard

ST. CLAIR SHORES, Mich. (AP)—If you get lost in a snowstorm and a big St. Bernard dog comes trotting up and finds you—it won't be Kandi.

Kandi is a St. Bernard that gets lost in snowstorms.

Kandi, who belongs to David Burgess, 23, got lost in the snowstorm that buried the Detroit area under the some 10 inches of snow last Thursday.

"I'll have to admit it," Burgess said Monday. "Kandi just couldn't find her way home in the snow. It's a little embarrassing."

Kandi, a 150-pound, "one-year-old puppy", was out walking in the snow with Burgess' friend, William O'Keefe, last Wednesday night when she became frightened and ran off.

The next day, Mrs. Irene F. Albaugh, found Kandi plodding around in the snow in her yard. She coaxed the dog into the house, fed it and called police.

The police told Burgess who walked two miles through the snow to the Albaugh home and got Kandi.

Kandi wasn't wearing that little keg all St. Beranrds are supposed to wear in snowstorms.

"Maybe if she had been she wouldn't have gotten lost," said Burgess. "Or at least someone would have paid more attention to her."

Dog Race Tracks Get Approval Of Cass Supervisors

CASSOPOLIS (AP)—The Cass County Board of Supervisors was on record in support of legislation to legalize four dog racing tracks in Michigan.

The board voted 11-3 Monday in approving a resolution favoring the proposed legislation.

Tentative plans call for one track to be constructed on a 100-acre Cass County site by Recreation Activities, Inc. whose representatives appeared before the board. They claimed that a track probably would produce upwards of $100,000 per year in Cass County tax revenues.

Newspaper wam ads are a big sell! Eight hundred million was spent on classified ads last year . . more than for all television spot announcements or radio advertising.

Expansion At Nahma

President Warren Miller of American Playground Device Co., of Anderson, Ind., announced this week through the Escanaba Daily Press that his firm was concentrating its manufacture in Nahma, the former sawmill town on Big Bay de Noc which it bought in 1951 when the Bay de Noquet Lumber Co. ended its operations there.

American Playground Device Co. is the largest exclusive manufacturer of playground and park equipment in the world. This is not to say, as President Miller hastens to mention, that it is a big firm as American industries go. It is a specialist in the production of fine equipment for parks and playgrounds, famed for the quality of styling and manufacture of its products.

It has been employing about 110 persons, 50 of them at its Nahma plant and come summer it will concentrate all its manufacture there and dispose of its factory at Anderson. The venture is a bold and courageous one for the company and one attended by risks which Warren Miller is the first to point out. "It's not good sense to move your plant 600 miles from the center of its market and its source of material supply," he says, unless there are some compensating factors like patented products. "Freight costs," he says "are something!"

* * *

The concentration of operations at Nahma and the enlargement there calls for an expected work force of 200 persons. This is a dream-come-true for the beautiful Nahma area, which has been hopeful for a husky successor to the sawmilling which gave the town its birth and most of a century of economic support.

It gives the Nahma area the bright prospect of a future in which its serious problems of employment, resource development, school organization and the civic benefits that come with substantial settlement will be much easier to solve. But Miller stresses that what's offered is a challenge and an opportunity and not an accomplished success. His firm is gambling that it can, by good management and good use of the advantages of the area, overcome the serious handicaps of distance and its attendant transportation costs.

There is greatness in the planning of Warren Miller that should strike a responsive chord in the Upper Peninsula and create here a determination to make his dream come true. He bought Nahma—the whole company-owned town—when he read about its availability in the Wall Street Journal. Its lumbering life was over until the forests grew sawtimber again—who wanted a community adaptable to other manufacture, or to resorting? He did!

* * *

The company spent $5 million at Nahma but continued its major operations at Anderson. Now it has taken the plunge. "We want to fulfill our obligations," said Miller "we want to see a charming community developed, as we originally planned.

"Nahma will be a permanent display place for our products. We're not going into the resort business, but we do plan development of our 5,000 acres, 7 miles of beach and 24 miles of frontage on the Sturgeon River while maintaining the natural environment".

So the company will move on two fronts; rehabilitation of the village and development of the area. It will be necessary to expand the facilities for manufacture to handle the volumes planned there. Utility needs include a better water system but the electric supply will meet the company's needs because of arrangements already made by Alger Delta Cooperative Electric Association and by Upper Peninsula Power Co.

Miller and other officials of the firm plan to make Nahma their home. He said "We hope to see it become one of the most economically sound communities of America. When you're there and see the sunsets and get the smell of the pines you realize what a really good place it is to live."

The Doctor Says:

Wryneck Two Diseases

By Dr. Wayne G. Brandstadt

Wryneck (torticollis) is not one disease but two — congenital and spasmodic.

The congenital form is seen in infants. In most, but not all victims, the deformity is caused by an injury to a neck muscle on one side incurred during delivery.

The injured muscle becomes replaced by scar tissue that can often be felt as a hard lump under the skin. The scar tissue contracts and pulls the head toward the affected side.

This condition often can be corrected by gentle stretching of the affected muscles if it is started early in infancy. If, however, when the child is a year old the wryneck persists, the condition can be corrected by surgical removal of the scarred muscle.

Spasmodic or dystonic wryneck is of a different origin and cannot be corrected by removal of the affected muscle.

Along with the spasms that pull the head to one side, there is often a weakening of the muscles on the opposite side.

In his work with victims of Parkinsonism or palsy, Dr. Irving S. Cooper of New York found that in those who also had wryneck the latter condition was improved or cured by his operation, which consists of destroying a minute area of the brain by freezing.

Cooper extended this treatment to persons who had wryneck not associated with palsy and to persons who had a spasmodic drawing of the head backward, as in looking at the top of the Empire State Building from street level. In his hands the operation has proved safe.

He does not, however, advise this operation for all persons with spasms of the neck, as some cannot be helped in this way.

The factors that separate patients with successful results from those with unsuccessful results have not yet been thoroughly evaluated but, as the study of this group of patients continues, selection of those who will be benefited by this procedure will become more accurate.

Q — I am taking Nacton tablets for an ulcer. What are the side effects?

A — These tablets (poldine methylsulfate) should not be taken by anyone who has glaucoma, an enlarged prostate, obstruction of the pylorus (outlet of the stomach), coronary artery disease or an abnormally fast pulse.

The side effects observed when the dose is too large include dryness of the mouth, blurred vision, constipation and difficulty passing the urine. These side effects disappear when the dose is reduced.

Compound Ends Arthritis Pain

TORONTO (AP) — A team of Detroit doctors has reported that an experimental compound used to treat rheumatoid arthritis has eliminated pain for all but one of 25 patients.

Some physicians at a conference on rheumatic diseases reacted cautiously, noting that the compound has been only partially successful in other trials. They said more research was needed before it is proven safe and effective.

Doctors Lyla Leipzig and A. J. Boyle working with biochemists D. S. McCann and R. E. Mosher at Wayne State University, said patients with advanced forms of crippling rheumatoid arthritis required no other medication for long periods after treatment with the compound named EDTA.

What My Faith Means To Me

By JACK P. WILLIAMS
Central Methodist Church

The assurance that nothing in the world can separate us from God's love. This is my faith.

That brief moment of silence as I look toward the first streak of morning light and practice the presence of God, that moment when I find fresh strength for a new day, this is my faith.

My faith is the assurance that in Christ I have a guide for my life whom I can trust implicitly.

It is the bench-mark to which I can return for a fresh start after encountering a dead-end street. This is my faith.

. . . . the scale which weighs the true values of life against the trivia, and reveals so many things in the world that I do not want. This is my faith.

Jack P. Williams

When frustration would threaten to muddle my thoughts my faith is the gentle, quieting voice of the Author of Peace.

It is the well-spring of strength and courage when I realize that alone I am insufficient for the task.

It is the promise of Jesus the Christ, "Because I live, ye shall live also". This is my faith.

Printing Law Heads For Test

LANSING (AP) — A Michigan law requiring that state printing be performed by union shops or firms with equivalent standards could be headed for a court test in the wake of a contract voiding.

Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley told the State Administrative Board Tuesday that a $195,760.50 contract with a Detroit printing firm must be voided because the firm did not meet statute requirements.

Charges by a Flint company which had lost the bidding competition led to a state investigation which turned up the deficiency, said Kelley.

The attorney general warned that the 1937 statute had never been tested in court and said, "we'll probably have to defend the statute and our case in the court of claims." But the board still voided the contract.

The statute requires that state printing be performed in Michigan and that the printing company either be union shop or file an affidavit that it meets union wages and conditions prevailing in its area.

Kelley said the Detroit company, Printing Services Inc., filed an affidavit which led to routine approval of the contract Jan. 5.

But Perry Printing Co. of Flint, which had bid $222,654.45, and the Michigan Federation of Typographical Unions protested. "Our investigation indicated the affidavit was not true," said Kelley.

Calumet & Hecla Earnings Boosted

HOUGHTON (AP) — Calumet & Hecla, Inc., and subsidiaries report earnings of $3,507,384 for 1964, compared to $2,299,738 for 1963.

Earnings were $1.56 per share last year, compared to 99 cents per share in 1963.

The company reported sales of $119,705,377, and increase of $7,469,597 over the preceding year's $112,235,780.

YPSILANTI (AP) — Sale of Ypsilanti's municipally owned gas distribution system to Michigan Consolidated Gas Co. for $415,000 was approved Monday in a special election by a vote of 749 to 21.

Senator Reminded

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — At a recent White House evening reception, observers report that President Johnson backed Sen. Frank Church, D-Ida., into a corner for about 15 minutes, admonishing him for his speeches urging a negotiated settlement in Viet Nam.

According to one source, the President pointed out that in early May, 1940, the late Sen. William Borah, famed Idaho isolationist, claimed there wasn't the slightest chance of the war expanding to include western Europe. Borah capped his views with the blunt statement, "My sources are better than those of President Roosevelt."

One week later, President Johnson reminded Church, Germany invaded the Low Countries.

"Remember that Idahoan who claimed that his sources were better than the president's, Frank?" Johnson asked. "History did not bear him out."

Mrs. Pat Hutar, vice chairman of the Republican National Committee, gave her proposals for building a "positive image" for the GOP in a recent speech.

They included sponsoring of better education legislation, broader appeal to minority groups, labor unions and senior citizens, and the need for a better relationship with the press.

Asked by a late-comer to sum up Mrs. Hutar's speech, a veteran reporter gave this answer:

"Take a 90-year old Negro Guild member newspaperman who teaches school at night to lunch."

Once described as "a permanent landmark at the national committee," veteran politician A. B. (Ab) Hermann has served under every GOP national chairman for the last 10 years. Introducing Hermann at a panel discussion, the moderator forgot his title.

"Just what is your title, Ab?" he asked.

Before Hermann could answer, someone in the audience stage-whispered:

"Survivor!"

To emphasize his point that Republicans must double their efforts "to get their message across to the American people," Michigan Rep. Gerald Ford, House minority leader, tells this story:

"A retiring minister was asked by his young replacement how he got his sermon message across to his congregation. The old man's advice:

" 'First I tells 'em what I'm going to tell 'em, then I tells 'em, and finally I tells 'em what I told 'em.' "

In the past, the Young Republicans organization has been a hotbed of conservatism. One Illinois YR does not believe this orientation will end overnight.

"I know one YR president who was so disgusted with the right-wing majority of his group that he just put through a law lowering the age limit of the group from 40 to 36," he says.

"That made him ineligible for membership."

Girl Loses Job, Gets Citation

DETROIT (AP) — Ex-state police undercover agent Peggy Allen is the pride of the Wayne County Detectives Association—if not the legislative Democrats.

The detectives organization gave Miss Allen the group's 1964 Civilian Citation and named her "honorary detective." Tuesday night.

This was in recognition of Miss Allen's services as a state police spy in cracking an alleged Madison Heights gambling operation in 1963— in the aftermath of which she lost her job as stenographer of the House Democrats.

Miss Allen, 28, a tall, good looking brunette, was "flattered" by the detectives' regard for her.

She had other feelings about the House Democrats.

"I had a lot of respect for those people, I'm afraid I've lost it all," she said. "I'm very disillusioned with politicans."

With the aid of a male escort, Miss Allen infiltrated the Steren Assembly Club, alleged gambling place, and testified for state police in a court case against 21 men after an October, 1963, raid. The case is in the Oakland County courts.

A number of Democratic representatives raised questions. In January she was informed she would not be retained in her stenographic job.

Going To France

MOSCOW (AP) — Informed sources in Moscow report that Valerian A. Zorin, a Soviet deputy foreign minister and veteran Kremlin spokesman in the United Nations, soon will be appointed ambassador to France.

He will replace S. A. Vinogradov, who has been in Paris since July 1953, the informants said.

Ann Landers

Class Is Sign Of Confidence

Dear Ann Landers: What is class? John F. Kennedy had it. Other presidents have had it, too, but with J.F.K. it just stuck out all over.

Bernard Baruch has it. Paul Getty doesn't. Grace Kelly and Deborah Kerr have it. Jayne Mansfield and Mamie Van Doren — no. King Gustav of Sweden has it but not so King Farouk. Prince Philip, yes. His brother-in-law, no.

Warren Spahn has it but Bo Belinsky doesn't. Perry Como has it in abundance — Liberace, not a trace. Gary Cooper — yup. John Wayne, nope.

We talk about people who have class, yet no one seems to know what it is. What is class anyway? — E.P.B.

Dear E.P.B.: Class is an aura of confidence that comes with knowing you've got the goods. It's being sure without being cocky.

Jacob had it, Esau didn't. Symbolically we can look to Jacob's wrestling match with the angel. Those with class have wrestled with their particular angel and won a victory that marks them thereafter.

Class has nothing to do with money. The wealthiest man in town can be notably without class, while the cop on the beat can ooze class from every pore.

Class never runs scared. Class is self-discipline and self-knowledge; it's the sure-footedness that comes with having proved that you can meet life and beat it to the draw.

Dear Ann Landers: I am a college professor who obviously does not know all the answers. Why don't newspapers report divorces only when they have been granted?

My own wife filed suit mysteriously several months ago. Of course, my colleagues and students all read about it in the paper. Within a few days my wife withdrew her suit. Our family doctor chalked it up to "the menopause." My wife said casually, "I was just trying to get your attention."

She got my attention all right. She also got the attention of dozens of people who saw the first report and missed the second and now believe I am divorced. I repeat, why do newspapers print the names of people who file? Why don't they wait until the decree is granted? — PROFESSOR

Dear Professor: Newspapers print news. When a petition for divorce is filed it is news. It is also a matter of public record, and newspapers — as well as all citizens — have access to such records.

A wife who must file suit for divorce in order to "get attention" must be in desparate need of it. I hope she is now getting attention — the professional kind.

Blank Lansing Checks Found

LANSING (AP) — Lansing officials were checking on some locks around city hall after councilwoman Lucile E. Belen announced she came across 50,000 blank paychecks in a storeroom.

Waving some of the checks, she asked the council Monday night: "Are the City of Lansing payroll checks closely protected to assure that a 'check artist' does not have access to them?

"They certainly are not," she declared.

City Controller Gerald J Lonergan said the checks were kept in a locked storeroom along with court and other records.

He discovered Tuesday there are some 40 keys to the lock.

The checks, he said, were defective and were being kept in the storeroom until the printer took them back.

The checks are unsigned and non-negotiable he said.

"They are so many hundred pounds of scrap paper as far as I'm concerned," Lonergan added.

Electric Jolts Treat Drinkers

PONTIAC (AP)—The alcoholic, wearing a strap with two wired metal rods around his head, took a sip from his glass of wine.

For the next 30 seconds he quivered as 18 volts of electricity shot through his head. His eyes bulged, his facial muscles twitched.

A patient at Pontiac State Hospital, he was taking a new treatmen for alcoholism devised by Dr. John J. Hsu, research director.

Before hand, he had swallowed a glass of milk. Nothing happened. Next, he downed water and fruit juice. Again nothing.

Two other glasses placed on a simulated bar contained whisky and beer. The man knew what would happen when he drank them. Each time, the unpleasant charge shot through him.

"There was a painful throbbing," the man said afterward. "It seemed to last a long time.

"I kept thinking: 'Oh, how long, how long!' I was quite conscious of time, and that it was passing very slowly.

Dr. Hsu explained that the patient, by forever connecting the alcohol with the shock, is to be conditioned to avoid alcohol from then on.

That's why the make-believe bar is used—to make the patient's mind associate the bar, as well as the drinks, with the experience.

Hsu's treatment covers a five-day period.

On the first three days, the patient is required to down all six drinks, suffering a jolt each from the wine, whisky and beer.

On the fourth and fifth days he takes varied drinks—gets a varied number of shocks.

He will return after one month and again after six months to repeat the fourth and fifth days' treatment.

"The treatment is an unpleasant experience and patients react to it with considerable anxiety," Hsu said. "However, there have been no untoward side effects.

"Some patients have relapses, but even limited success is a gain," he said.

Dr. Hsu said he had treated 57 patients and all had been helped to varying degrees. He said the amount of voltage is too small to cause harm. The maximum 18 volts, he said, compares to the 300-600 of electroshock therapy.

Minnesota And Iowa Get Snow

By The Associated Press

Blizzards blasted storm-stricken sections of the Midwest today in one of winter's most prolonged and damaging storms.

Blizzards whipped parts of Minnesota for the third straight day and lashed the eastern Dakotas. The severe snow and ice storms virtually paralyzed some sections of Minnesota and Iowa.

Hundreds of schools remained closed in the storm belt. Travelers were stranded and hundreds of cars were abandoned. Air, rail and highway travel was seriously disrupted. Colder weather eased flood conditions.

The snow covering at St. Cloud, some 70 miles north of Minneapolis, measured 28 inches, the heaviest amount throughout the storm area. The storm dumped 18 inches of snow Monday and Tuesday. Strong winds disrupted snow removal operations and scores of roads were blocked by huge drifts in many areas.

In Iowa, about 150 trucks and 400 cars jammed up on icy highways northwest of Davenport after freezing rain hit the area. Six semitrailers and several cars slipped off the shoulders of one highway and backed up traffic for four miles. Wreckers worked for three hours to untangle the tieup.

Engine Failure Is Setback For Space Project

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — A space agency investigation team today sought to determine the cause of an engine failure that sent a $12-million Atlas-Centaur rocket crashing in flames on its launch pad.

The failure Tuesday was a serious setback to the Project Surveyor program which seeks to gently land unmanned spacecraft on the moon to learn if the surface is strong enough to support manned landings.

The Atlas-Centaur was to have propelled a dummy Surveyor craft to an imaginary moon 248,000 miles out in a rehearsal for the first launching of a live Surveyor, scheduled between Sept. 26 and Oct. 2.

National Aeronautics and Space Administration officials said the explosion probably will delay both the Atlas-Centaur and Surveyor programs several months. The first Surveyor probably will not land on the moon before 1966.

Recovery To Be Long, Slow For Cardinal Meyer

CHICAGO (AP) — Albert Cardinal Meyer is hospitalized after removal of a malignant brain tumor but his work as head of the nation's largest Roman Catholic archdiocese is being carried on.

The Most Rev. Cletus F. O'Donnell, vicar general of the Chicago archdiocese, has assumed full responsibility and authority of the cardinal, spiritual leader of two million Catholics in the Chicago area.

Auxiliary Bishop O'Donnell referred to his new duties as "minding the store."

Surgeons at Mercy Hospital, where Cardinal Meyer underwent a four-hour operation last Thursday, said Tuesday a tumor removed from the cardinal's brain was cancerous.

The brief statement made no comment on the prelate's chances for recovery. The hospital earlier had described the 61-year-old cardinal as "still a very sick man" and said he was not expected to make dramatic improvement "but a long, slow recovery at best."

Dr. Wentz Will Head Hospital

SAULT STE. MARIE—Appointment of Dr. Walter J. Wentz of St. Louis, Mo., as administrator of War Memorial Hospital to succeed Dr. Kenneth J. Shouldice was announced today.

Dr. Wentz will arrive May 17 for a six weeks' transitional traning period before taking up his duties as administrator on July 1.

Dr. Shouldice, who has been administrator for the past four years, recently resigned as of July 1 to accept an appointment as vice president of Michigan Technological University, Houghton, and director of Michigan Tech's Sault Branch.

Black Duck Gets Accolade As King Of Marsh Birds

By LEE SMITS

The mystery of bird migration never will be cleared up, completely. When a mystery of nature is solved, the solution leads to a larger mystery.

It has been demonstrated that migrating birds navigate by the sun, moon and stars, and also by landmarks. In thick weather, they're in trouble.

While most members of a species make the semi-annual round trip between breeding grounds and wintering grounds, there are odd ones that refuse to go along. Why? A few robins stay in Michigan all winter. When winter was at dead center, a sizeable flock of robins appeared in Monroe. Among the year-around resident mallard at the head of Belle Isle in the Detroit River, there are a few black duck, mooching hand-outs from the public instead of joining the majority of black duck, wintering on the Atlantic coast.

The black duck is king of marsh ducks for wildfowlers east of the Mississippi, just as the canvasback tops all of the diving species in America. To begin with, the black duck is strictly a North American species. It is a facsimile of the mallard, except for plumage and its way of life. Blacks and mallards occasionally interbreed.

The books describe three, perhaps four, sub-species of blacks; the standard black duck, common in Michigan, with a possible close cousin, the red-legged black duck which many naturalists identify as mature birds, that head south late in the season. Then there is the Florida duck, a paler copy of our black, and the mottled duck of the Gulf Coast. These two sub-species stay put the year around, do not migrate.

The black duck is a potent symbol for an old-timers, a reminder of long years of wildfowl adventuring, from remote beaver-ponds along Lake Superior to lush shooting clubs on Lake Erie; from balmy opening days, with bluewing teal coming into decoys with the blacks, to late November snow-storms and blacks hunting air-holes on an ice-bound marsh. Memories go back to live decoy, and wary red-legs flaring at sight of them.

The thought of black duck ties in with the thought of the wonderful companionship of the shooting partners of a lifetime. I open Kortwright's great book, "The Ducks, Geese and Swans of North America," and on the fly-leaf is Hy Dahlka, "To my duck-shooting partner," and the date, 1943.

I open "High Tide and East Wind," by Bruce Wright, and I see Ralf Coykendall's artistic print-script. Ralph, who lives in Connecticult, is author of the authoritative book on American decoys and how to rig them We have shot ducks together, and talked ducks tirelessly over a considerable stretch of years.

Kortwright opens the story of the black duck by calling it "the most sagacious, wary and wildest of all ducks." Yet late last summer I saw an old black with 10 full grown young ones that refused to leave Johnson's fishery on the north side of Isle Royale. They lived in the boat house, stayed close to the duck and thrived on a diet of fish scraps.

★ ★ ★

Bruce Wright's book is 162 pages of black duck. It contains much curious lore, including a description of the principal breeding ground of the eastern black duck population, extending from Labrador to the northeastern corner of Hudson's Bay, a vast wilderness domain, free of human intrusion except for a few Indian trappers.

Then there is the memory of the Saskatchewan prairie carpeted with mallard, mostly green-heads late in the season. Driving homeward we looked for hours upon what seemed like millions of mallard. Dr. Ralph Kernkamp braked the station-wagon on a lumpy mud road.

"Look!" he said, pointing to a flock of about 20 ducks on a slough, "blacks."

Black duck, the furthest west I'd ever seen them. Aristocrats, refusing to mingle with the swarms of common mallard.

Steel Contract Talks Revived

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Negotiators for the United Steelworkers and the 11 major steel firms are expected to meet Thursday in a preliminary session sure to have important bearing on the long-delayed efforts to write a new contract for the basic industry.

The industry requested the meeting to plan resumption of the talks next Monday and to press for an extension of the union's May 1 strike deadline.

R. Conrad Cooper, chief industry negotiator, in a letter to USW President David J. McDonald Monday, called for "prompt amendment of the termination provisions of the current labor agreement so as to reinstitute the 120-days' notice provision."

Cooper, underlining past union-industry cooperation "to minimize the devastating cycles of a build-up and letdown in steel markets," noted that half of the 120-day negotiation period already had passed.

"The longer the present uncertainty continues, the worse the effect becomes," he said.

Cooper also pointed out that in 1964 about 6.4 million tons of foreign steel were imported while it now appears that 4.5 million tons will be imported in the first half of this year alone.

Although the build-up and letdown of domestic production is injurious in many ways, Cooper said, "the increased importation of steel is far more injurious because it means, for the American steelworker, employment irretrievably lost."

Jets Hit Secret Laos Targets

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — More than 30 U.S. Air Force jets flew a mystery strike today from Da Nang air base. It was believed they hit at Communist positions in Laos.

Officials at Da Nang, 100 miles south of the border with North Viet Nam, would not disclose the targets of the strike.

American officials in Saigon said there had been no strike against North Viet Nam today, but they refused to say whether raids had been made elsewhere outside South Viet Nam.

American jets have been hitting Communist targets in Laos fairly regularly for the past few months.

A high Vietnamese source at Da Nang said the strike was against Communist targets either in North Viet Nam or in Laos. He declined to say which.

He said regular attacks against Communist targets in both countries could be expected in the future.

President Johnson said in Washington Tuesday night that six planes were shot down in Tuesday's massive air raid against Red military targets in North Viet Nam and that five of the pilots had been rescued.

Job Aid Needed In His District, Clevenger Says

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Appalachia program should serve as the first step in a regional approach to helping areas of economic distress, Rep. Raymond F. Clevenger, D - Mich., said today.

In the last two days the House has debated the Senate - passed $1.1 billion Appalachian bill and is expected to pass it today. Clevenger supports the measure.

"While it is true that this area (Appalachia) is in dire need of federal help, we cannot afford to overlook other areas of the country which also are in need of assistance," Clevenger said.

Clevenger represents Michigan's 11th District, which includes all of the Upper Peninsula and seven counties in the Lower Peninsula.

"In the 11th District, for example, unemployment has been running more than 4 per cent higher than in Appalachia," he said.

"Unemployment of 11.5 per cent in the 11th District compares with 6.9 per cent for the state of Michigan, 5.1 per cent for the United States as a whole, and 7.1 per cent for Appalachia."

With one exception, he said Menominee County, each of the 22 counties in his district is an area of persistent unemployment as measured by labor Department standards, he said.

Clevenger said he will continue to push for passage of his bill calling for an Upper Great Lakes Development Authority.

"This bill, which would set up an authority comprising the states of Michigan, Wisconsin and Minnesota, is a logical extension of the Appalachia approach," he said.

MARQUETTE — The Marquette City Commission has again rejected a proposal to participate in the statewide "mayor exchange" program during Michigan Week. Marquette has not participated in the program since 1960, when James R. Smith, mayor then, decided a four-man delegation from Saginaw was planning to bring to Marquette carried the spirit of the program a little too far. "As originally conceived the mayor exchange program was a very fine arrangement," Smith said then. "However, the plan is being exploited by having too much emphasis on entertainment."

NEGAUNEE—The City of Negaunee will lose nearly $4 million in valuation of mining and mineral properties this year, according to figures received from the Michigan Tax Commission. Total valuations aproved by the Commission are $7,210,900, a loss of $3,725,100 from a year ago. The 1964 valuation was $3,454,000 under the 1963 total ,a drop of almost 50 per cent in two years. Based on a tax levy of 24 mills, the valuation reduction will cost the city about $90,000 in tax revenues.

Highway Traffic Accident Rate Proves Costly

Michigan's horrible fatality and accident record over the past two years, worst of any of the highly industrialized and heavily populated states, is hitting the ordinary motorist in a "pretty sensitive spot . . . his pocketbook," according to James M. Hare, chairman of the Michigan State Safety Commission.

"These lamentable statistics have spawned a costly by-product, . . . more than $1-million a day in accident costs which have brought about a general increase in car insurance rates," Hare said.

"The ordinary motorist doesn't seem to understand that he is the one who is footing the bill in our headlong rush toward the bloodiest highway record in the country. If he doesn't think he will become involved in a fatal or personal injury accident, and many persons feel this way, perhaps we can get him concerned over something that is a mite more tangible . . . the heavy economic loss caused by highway accidents and what they are costing him personally."

Hare said Michigan's increase was more than twice as high as the national average of 17 per cent during the same period. Michigan rated fifth in total deaths during 1964.

While Michigan's total deaths were high, it did not appear among the top states in either death rate per population or in deaths per miles driven. The state's 25.8 deaths per 100,000 population ranked it 32nd nationally, while it was 30th with 5.4 deaths per 100-million miles driven.

GAY AFTERNOON LIFE

RENO, Nev. (AP) — There's one Reno chorus line which doesn't get to see much of the gay night life.

The line is composed of six 10-year-old school girls who specialize in the can-can.

The fifth graders, trained by former chorus girl Carol Allen, perform for fashion shows and women's benefits — in the afternoon.

Contributions To Chips Welcomed

The Charles W. Harts of 999 Santa Fe, San Jacinto, Calif., wrote the Press on a postcard picturing a snow scene with the hail: "Greetings From Rapid River, Mich."

"We love the snowy beauty of Escanaba, but could find no snow scenes to send our friends. Then we found Rapid River and lovely cards. Tsk! Tsk! Thanks anyway for a wonderful week in charming Escanaba."

(Note: Several Escanaba card dealers have snow scene postcards, says Bud Stade, wholesale supplier of postcards. None of them is a local scene, says Stade, because a minimum order of 6,500 cards is required for such a treatment. The Rapid River card hasn't a local scene either.)

S/Sgt. Bernard J. Newhouse and his wife, the former Janice Shafer of Nahma, were recently presented with the 10,000th telephone to be installed by Eastern Illinois Telephone Co. in Rantoul, Ill. Sgt. Newhouse is residing at Rantoul while he attends school at Chanute Air Force Base as a member of the 3353rd School Squadron. Along with the presentation went the service of a white Starlite Extension, with no cost, to the Newhouse family during their stay at Rantoul.

Polio Vaccine Clinics At Trenary Friday

TRENARY—The Rotary Club of Munising is sponsoring clinics throughout Alger County to administer the Sabin oral polio vaccine. The first feeding of this polio vaccine will be given Friday, March 5, between the hours of 11 a. m. and 4 p. m. in the Trenary school.

Any person over 6 months of age is eligible and those under 21 years of age must present a consent slip signed by the parent. A donation of 50c will be accepted, but no one will be refused the vaccine.

The vaccine is taken by mouth, with drops of vaccine placed on a sugar cube and swallowed. Older people, if they have had polio vaccine or not, should take the vaccine at this clinic. Age and association may not guarantee immunization against polio.

A series of two feedings of oral vaccine is recommended to all persons, whether or not they have had Salk polio shots. The 2nd clinic will be held about 8 weeks after the first, on April 30, May 1 and 2.

Deadlines Set For Legislature

LANSING (AP) — The Senate set deadline dates Monday for a 1965 legislative session that will run at least through July 30.

House approval is required but its leadership has informally agreed to the schedule. Senate Majority Leader Raymond Dzendzel, D - Detroit, said the schedule might be changed later in the session if work piles up.

Governor Proclaims World Day Of Prayer

Governor George Romney has proclaimed Friday, March 5, as World Day of Prayer in Michigan.

The observance in the Escanaba area will be held at 2 p. m. at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church.

In his proclamation Governor Romney notes that "World Day of Prayer will be observed in many places throughout the world where humble people living against a background of universal tension and uncertainty, will bow their heads and lift up their hearts to Almighty God, forming an articulate and inspiring chain of prayer.

"The inviolate freedom of the individual to pursue his destiny, so long as that pursuit is consistent with the common good — that is the basis of our society and source of our strength. While we recognize the interdependence of men, their mutual obligations to each other, we believe that man's obligation to his God is of paramount importance."

The title for the World Day of Prayer observance this year is "Prayer Around the World." With the rising of the sun, worship as a golden chain of prayer begins in the east in the Tonga Islands and will move across the waters and the lands until it has girded the earth, ending with services in Alaskan churches.

At the observance at St. Stephen's Church, 523 3rd Ave. S. The Rev. Ben Helmer will speak on the theme for the day, "What Doth the Lord Require?" Mrs. Arthur Olson will sing "He's Got the Whole World in His Hands" with accompaniment by Mrs. J. Alton Mallmann, who also will serve as organist for the service.

Others taking part in the program are the Mesdames Walter Bjorkquist, Marvin Pearson, Reginald Piron, Donald Ness, Barnett Mills, Joseph Rouse, Carlton Johnson and Anna Herrod, publicity chairman.

The meeting is open to all interested women of the area.

Scallops Star In Meals For Lenten Season

Getting variety into Lenten meals isn't much of a trick if your family likes scallops. This versatile little mollusk can play the feature role in a wide variety of tempting dishes and rate you round after round of applause.

The scallop's plump, succulent shell muscle is the part Americans eat although Europeans place a high value on the roe, too. The demand for scallop roes in this country has never been great. Fishermen discard them at sea in favor of filling their holds with the popular muscle meats.

These tender nuggets lend themselves happily to salads, chowders, casseroles and pies. Or they can be broiled, baked or fried. But whatever you do, don't overcook them or they will toughen and lose their flavor.

Variety is possible even with the breaded heat-and-eat frozen scallops by serving them with different seafood sauces gleaned from most cookbooks.

Here's a hearty casserole that blends the sea tang of scallops with the delicate flavor of mushrooms and grated cheese.

CREAMED SCALLOPS 'N MUSHROOMS

1 lb. sea scallops
1 cup fresh sliced mushrooms, or 1 6-oz. can sliced mushrooms
4 tbsps. butter or margarine
4 tbsps. flour
½ tsp. salt
¼ tsp. pepper
1½ cups light cream
2 tbsps. minced parsley
½ cup grated cheese, paprika

If fresh mushrooms are used, simmer for 5 minutes in ½ cup water. Grease a shallow casserole with shortening. If scallops are frozen, thaw, rinse and wipe dry. Arrange in bottom of casserole. Make a cream sauce by melting butter, adding flour and stirring constantly. Gradually add cream, stirring until all lumps are removed. Add cooked mushrooms with their liquid, or canned mushrooms and liquid. Mix well. Add parsley, adjust seasoning, pour and gently mix over scallops. Sprinkle with grated cheese and paprika. Bake in 350° over for 25-30 minutes, until cheese is melted and sauce bubbly. Serves four.

Plans for the annual district meeting will be made and Mrs. George Coppess, delegate to the Freedom Conference at Central Michigan University, Mount Pleasant, will give a report.

Central WSCS Meets Thursday

The regular monthly meeting of Central Methodist Woman's Society of Christian Service will be held in the church parlors Thursday, March 4, beginning at 2:30 p.m. The program feature will be a talk by the Rev. Robert L. Selberg on "The Church Views the Disturbed." Hostesses for the social hour to follow the meeting will be the Mesdames Felix Johnson, Wilfred Brown, George Miller and Ralph Erickson. Members and their friends are invited.

Personals

Mrs. Dan Beauchamp, 409 S. 13th St., returned Tuesday from Milwaukee where she spent the past three weeks visiting with her son, Howard Morreau, and her daughters, Mrs. Leno Pegoraro and Mrs. John Mahalick, and members of their families.

Dr. and Mrs. Gilbert H. Bast are leaving Thursday for a winter vacation in Hollywood, Fla. Enroute they plan several stops for visits with friends and then will go on to join other Escanabans in Florida. They plan to return March 22.

P.E.O. Chapter Meets Thursday

Regular meeting of Chapter Z, P. E. O. Sisterhood, will be held at the home of Mrs. Charles W. Stoll, 600 Lake Shore Drive, Thursday at 8 p.m. This will be the annual business session of the Chapter. Yearly reports will be presented, officers will be elected and installed and delegates to the state convention will be named.

Assisting hostesses are Mrs. George Embs and Mrs. Benjamin Johns.

Midweek Lenten Services At Christ The King

The Lenten Midweek services at Christ the King Lutheran Church will take place at 7:30 p. m. each Wednesday through the Lenten season.

The Rev. Erland E. Carlson will preach on the "Seven Last Words" which Christ uttered from the cross using one each Wednesday evening as the theme.

At tonight's Ash Wednesday Communion service, Pastor Carlson will speak on the First Word, "Father Forgive Them for They Know Not What They Do."

The Senior Choir will sing "When I Survey The Wondrous Cross. The public is invited to attend this service.

Clairmont Credit Union Officers Hear Reports

The Clairmont Northern Employes Federal Credit Union held its annual officers' get-acquainted meeting at the Sherman Hotel on Saturday evening, Feb. 27, attended by members of the board of directors, manager, supervisory, credit, and membership relations committees and their guests.

Brief talks were given by President Percy R. Clouse, who conducted the business session, Manager Robert A. Lake, Treasurer Joseph W. Richards, and committee chairmen. Purpose of the meeting was to acquaint the members of the official family with each other and their respective duties and responsibilities.

The session closed with a talk by Robert Corey, treasurer-manager of Munising Paper Products Credit Union, Kimberly Clark Corp., Munising; and group singing and refreshments.

Grand Rapids Has Do-It-Yourself Hospital Unit

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — St. Mary's Hospital calls it a minimal care section but to outsiders the new 30-bed ambulatory care unit looks more like a motel than a hospital.

It is for patients who are not acutely ill and who are able to do things for themselves, says Sister Maureen, R.S.M., hospital administrator.

One of the first of its kind in Michigan, it augments existing intensive and intermediate care units.

"We function around the patient, rather than tying him to hospital routine," adds assistant administrator John L. Morrow. "The patient isn't awakened to be given a sleeping pill."

Located in one wing of the hospital, the new unit is less than a week old. It offers attractively furnished rooms with connecting tiled shower and lavatory facilities, a day room and a lounge.

One nurse is in charge of the unit and patients come to her desk for medication. Each patient has permission to come and go as he pleases, being required only to sign in and out of the unit.

Besides its informality and self-serve features, the unit has a rate roughly 25 per cent lower than that for a semi-private regular hospital room.

Silver Wedding Celebrated By Wells Couple

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Briere of Wells were joined by relatives and friends in the celebration of their silver wedding anniversary Saturday, Feb. 27.

A Mass of Thanksgiving at St. Anthony's Church at 11 a.m., a dinner for the immediate family at the Eagles Club and a reception and dance for 500 guests, also at the Eagles, were events of the day.

At the Mass, the honor couple, attended by Mr. and Mrs. Louis Gryzb of Bark River, repeated their marriage vows before the celebrant, Father Norbert Freiburger.

Centering the buffet table for the reception was a four-tiered cake, topped with a silver ornament, made and decorated by Vagn Gydesen. It was served by their daughter-in-law, Loretta Briere. Presiding at the silver service were nieces, Mrs. Mary Peterson and Marilyn and Marlene St. John. Patsy Gryzb was in charge of the guest book and Mrs. Joan Johnson assisted in opening the many gifts. They also are nieces.

Guests, in addition to those from surrounding areas, were Mr. and Mrs. Orton Degeneffe, Sault Ste. Marie, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Weighant, Cooks, Mr. and Mrs. Vern White, Gwinn, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Paul, Negaunee, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Bolm, Ensign, Tom Noon and Annette Bock, Appelton, Joe and Ken Briere and Jim Grenier, Milwaukee, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Pavilla, Chicago.

Purple, a popular shade this season, tends to drain color from the face. Try a more vivid make-up when you wear any of the purple tones and add a touch of turquoise eye shadow.

Girl Scouts Of Delta Joining Birthday Salute

The 700 members of the Delta County Girl Scout Council will join with almost three and three quarter million Girl Scouts throughout the country in celebrating Girl Scout Week from Sunday, through Saturday, March 13.

"A Promise in Action" is the theme of Girl Scout Week and of the Girl Scouts' 53rd birthday, which occurs on March 12. This date marks the anniversary of the first meeting of the first troop organized in Savannah, Ga., by Juliette Gordon Low, founder of the movement in the U. S.

Since that first troop of a few girls, more than 20 million members have made the Girl Scout Promise to do their duty to God and country, to help other people at all times, and to obey the Girl Scout Laws of loyalty, honesty, courtesy, cheerfulness, usefulness, kindness and thrift.

This year, Girl Scouts are paying special attention to the "bridges" which give continuity to their program. The program adapts activities related to the arts, the home, and the out-of-doors, to the changing interests and needs of girls ages seven through 17, thus "bridging" the four age levels: Brown Girl Scouts, (ages 7 and 8) to Senior Girl Scouts (ages 15 through 17).

Special days are earmarked throughout Girl Scout Week to illustrate the various aspects of the Girl Scout program. They are: Girl Scout Sunday; Monday—Homemaking; Tuesday—Citizenship; Wednesday—Health and Safety; Thursday—International Friendship; Friday—Arts; Saturday—Out-of-Doors.

In observance of Girl Scout Sunday March 7, thousands of Girl Scouts are expected to attend religious services in uniform.

Shrimp Creole Favorite Dish For Lenten Meal

This shrimp creole recipe from Louisiana is a superb solution to the meatless days of Lent. In fact, you will be proud to serve it to your family and friends any day of the week, any time of the year.

The secret of this tasty dish is in the sauce. It is a flavorful combination of seasonings, yet easy to prepare. You probably have most of the ingredients on hand.

If you want to win compliments, feature this shrimp creole recipe on your dinner table. The shrimp floating amid the colorful sauce on a bed of hot cooked rice makes a wonderful centerpiece.

Louisiana Shrimp Creole

1 can (4 ounces) mushroom pieces, drained
½ cup minced celery
¼ cup minced onion
¼ cup minced green pepper
2 tablespoons shortening
2 cans condensed tomato soup, undiluted
½ cup mushroom liquid and water
1 tablespoon vinegar
½ teaspoon chili powder
Dash cayenne pepper
1½ pounds green shrimp, cooked and split lengthwise, or ¾ pound cleaned shrimp

Saute mushroom pieces, minced celery, minced onion, and minced green pepper in shortening until tender. Stir in tomato soup, mushroom liquid, vinegar, chili powder and cayenne pepper. Simmer 10 minutes to blend flavors. Add shrimp and heat. Serve over hot cooked rice. Yield: 6 servings.

Honors Given In Cub Scouts

Approximately 375 Cub Scouts and their families and guests attended the annual Blue and Gold Bainquet held in the basement of All Saints Church Saturday evening.

Cubmaster Floyd Swift welcomed the guests, den mothers, and adult leaders, and presented the charter to William Swenson, institutional representative for August Mattson Post 71, American Legion, sponsors of the pack.

David Clark of Den 9 was presented with the pack checker champions trophy and runners-up Wayne Louis and John Loomis were presented with ribbons. William Buchmiller, Red Buck District kite flying contest winner for 1964, was also presented his trophy.

Gifts were presented to adult leaders working last year including Mrs. Paul Eurling, Mrs. Martin Schmidt, Delbert Lorenson, Mrs. Clifford Witte, Mrs. John Whitney, Mrs. Floyd Swift, Mrs. Richard Moberg and Mrs. Rudolph Bakran.

Den mothers training awards went to Mrs. George Lockard and Mrs. Werner Isaacson and Mrs. Clifford Mineau received a five-year service pin. Mrs. Mineau was commended for having served five previous years as a den mother and after retiring for one year assumed her duties again for another five years. She also is the leader of a Girl Scout troop.

Charles Borden, assistant cubmaster and treasurer was presented with a 10-year service pin.

The program was presented by a group of boys from the Order of the Arrow, including two dances by the dance team and several musical selections by The Drifters, a vocal trio composed of Bruce Hawkinson, Richard Balding and Pat Norton.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. James T. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. William Beach, Mrs. H. J. Skogquist, Mr. and Mrs. John Norton, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Schmidt, William Swenson, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Schram, Mr. and Mrs. John Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Van Brocklin, Mr. and Mrs. William Niles and Msgr. Matt LaViolette, who gave the invocation.

Michigan State Singers Coming To Gladstone

The Singing Statesmen of Michigan State University will present a concert at the High School gym March 23. The group will be brought to Gladstone through the efforts of the High School music department under the direction of Paul Cowen.

About 44 voices will be heard in the concert including that of Roger Wittrap, who has been a camp counselor at Camp BaTaWaGaMa for many years, and will be remembered by many of the local campers.

The group has recently appeared on the Ed Sullivan show and has also performed before the United Nations.

Housing will be needed for the singers during their stay in Gladstone.

Program Set Up For Lutheran Church Women

A program entitled, "Day of Rest and Gladness", is the theme for the general meeting of the Lutheran Church Women at the First Lutheran church Fellowship Hall at 8 p. m. Thursday.

The program explores past history in regard to Sunday observance and gives insight into Sunday closing laws of the present. It also challenges women to discover and use guiding principles for a meaningful observance of "the day of rest and gladness."

Girl Scout Troop 14, sponsored by the church women under the leadership of Mrs. William Swenson and Mrs. Clifford D'Arcy, will participate in the program.

Hostesses are Mesdames Harlan Christianson, Francis Gobert and Martin Schmidt. All women of First Lutheran Church are invited to attend.

Obituary

CHARLES E. TURAN

Funeral services for Charles E. Turan, 65, were held at St. Charles Church, Rapid River, at 10 a. m. today with Fr. John V Suhr, officiating. Burial was in Rapid River Cemetery. Honorary pallbearers were Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus Peter Canon, Joseph Casimir, Clinton Groos, Arthur Messier Sr., Gus Trottier, and Martin Vandenboom. Active pallbearers, nephews, were Edward and Charles Gouin, Danny, Ellsworth and Wesley Turan and Richard Sigerstrom.

Briefly Told

Gladstone Lodge 396, F&AM, will hold a regular communication at the Masonic Temple at 7:30 p.m. Thursday. Visiting Masons are welcome to attend.

State Police of the Gladstone Post issued traffic tickets Tuesday to Earl O. Iverson, Rte. 1, Escanaba, no operator's license, and Andrews W. Budkis, Rte. 1, Gladstone, expired registration plates on truck.

4-H Leaders of the Gladstone Community Club will meet in the community room of the James T. Jones School at 8 p.m. Thursday. Larry Bradford, Delta County 4-H agent will be present to assist in planning the club spring achievement program.

Crippled Hunter Wins Decision

LANSING (AP) — Michigan hunters who are wounded by companions apparently will be able to collect damages much more easily in the future as the result of a ruling of the Michigan Supreme Court Monday.

In a multiple - split decision, the high court criticized its own earlier application of the doctrine of assumed risk in damage cases.

"It is our conclusion that we have strayed far afield from its proper and limited purpose in our precedential use of the doctrine," said the controlling opinion, written by Justice Theodore Souris and signed by Chief Justice Thomas Kavanagh and Justices John Dethmers, Eugene Black and Michael O'Hara.

This doctrine says, basically, that when a person places himself in a certain situation or engages in certain activities, he assumes a risk, thus diminishing or eliminating the liability of the person or persons charged with the damages.

The court upheld a $35,000 judgment by Judge Philip Hodsell of Berrien County Circuit Court against a Kalamazoo County duck hunter charged with shooting a companion in the leg, resulting in an amputation.

Louis Felgner charged that Nelson Anderson shot him when they were hunting from a duck blind in Schoolcraft Marsh, Oct. 7, 1960.

The common law doctrine, the high court said, originally was applied to master - servant and later employer - employe relations—meaning that employes assumed certain risks in taking their jobs.

Supreme Court decisions gradually have carried this over into other areas, Souris said, adding:

"Assumption of risk should not again be used in this state as a substitute for, or as a supplement to, or as a corollary of, contributory negligence."

Justices Otis Smith and Paul Adams agreed to affirm the lower court's decision, but felt it advisable to "defer consideration of the elimination of this doctrine until such time as that question is specifically before the court."

Burglars Praised For Clean Job On Second Try

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Someone broke into Clark R. Shelton's restaurant last week and didn't get anything.

This week someone broke in and stole $55.

But Shelton didn't take it too badly. He put this ad in the Ann Arbor News today:

"I wish to thank whomever broke into Red's Rite Spot Monday night and stole the cash box for doing such a neat job. Last week when you tried, you made an awful mess for me to clean up."

U.S. Prison Labor Pays Dividends

WASHINGTON (AP) — Federal prison labor produced a $4-million dividend for the U.S. Treasury last year.

Atty. Gen. Nicholas Katzenbach has reported that the dividend brings to $59 million the total turned over to the Treasury since 1946.

The directing corporation, Federal Prison Industries, Inc., operates 55 shops and factories in 23 institutions. Katzenbach said all sales are to other federal agencies, and the work is diversified to make competition with private enterprise negligible.

Trooper Wounds Youth, 17, Who Assaulted Him

By DAVE ANDREWS

"I thought about going to the reformatory so I decided to run."

Kenneth Jackson Phillips who is handcuffed to a bed at St. Francis Hospital with a bullet wound in his right leg, explained to State Police today why he fled arrest Tuesday afternoon.

Phillips, 17, of 1227 N. Platten St., Green Bay, was shot from behind in the right leg by Trooper Clarence Taylor of the Gladstone State Police Post at 1:40 p. m. Tuesday just north of the Escanaba city limits on highway U. S. 2 and 41.

Taylor, responding to a report of a stolen car, had stopped the car Phillips was drivind and had attempted to put the youth under arrest.

Struggle For Gun

"I didn't want to go to the reformatory," Phillips said. "I decided to run. The officer grabbed me and we had a little scuffle. I got away from him and ran down the road.

"Then a guy came after me with a hammer and I thought if I stopped he'd bust my skull open so I kept running."

State Police said in the "scuffle" that Troper Taylor, married and father of three children, received two black eyes, a cut beneath one eye and had to struggle to maintain possession of his gun.

Phillips, a 14-year-old juvenile from Green Bay, and two Delta County youths were stopped by Trooper Taylor about 1:40 p. m. Tuesday, officers said.

Resists Handcuffs

The local youths—one from Escanaba and another from Gladstone—were released.

Phillips is being held as a fugitive from Wisconsin and under local charges of resisting arrest and a traffic violation of failing to have a driver's license.

The 14-year-old Green Bay boy will be released later today to his parents and turned over to juvenile authorities in Wisconsin.

Troopers said the three passengers remained in the car when Taylor took Phillips to the police car for questioning and were not involved in either the fight or shooting.

Officers said Phillips broke out of the state police car when Trooper Taylor attempted to put handcuffs on him. When Taylor caught him outside the car, the men fought and Phillips made an attempt to get Taylor's gun.

Car Stolen

This Phillips denied this morning.

"All I was doing was trying to throw him off," he said. "I wasn't trying to get his gun."

Police said Phillips fled around the back of the patrol car and Taylor shouted after him to halt.

"Go ahead and shoot if you're going to," Phillips said.

When the youth continued to run, Taylor fired one shot, striking Phillips in the upper part of the right leg, officers said. Phillips was taken to St. Francis Hospital by ambulance, where he is under police guard.

Officers said the car Phillips was driving — a 1964-model Buick—had been stolen from a Green Bay used car lot.

Skip Day Funds Given To Auto Collision Victims

MUSKEGON (AP)— The 106 members of Western Michigan Christian High School's senior class have voted to give their "Skip Day" funds of $1,000 to two classmates whose father died in an auto crash.

Henry VanderZee, 47, a father of seven children, was killed last Tuesday near Holton when his car and another auto collided. He was driving three of his children to classes at Western The children, Robert, 18, and Keith, 17, both seniors, and Mary Anne, 16, a sophomore, were injured.

Barbara Poel, 18, editor of the student newspaper, said the students decided to give the money to the family "because they wanted to do something for their classmates." The students usually observe Skip Day by going to a ranch north of Muskegon.

Flat Tax Can Get Exemptions

LANSING (AP)—The legislature may grant exemptions under a flat rate income tax, Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley has ruled.

Kelley answered a query from Sen. Basil Brown, D-Detroit, who asked whether constitutional prohibition against a graduated tax also prohibited exemptions.

Kelley's decision was seen as another step forward for fiscal reform since it frees Democrats to seek a high-exemption, high-rate income tax that would somewhat approach a graduated tax plan.

Brown has proposed two-step fiscal reform culminating in a graduated tax if the constitution is amended.

The income tax article of the constitution, Kelley said, "does not bar the legislature from exempting a certain dollar amount of gross income or a certain specified portion of a taxpayer's income, or from providing exemptions for a taxpayer and his dependents similar to those provided for under the federal law."

Kelley went back to the Constitutional Convention debates to reach his conclusion.

The convention record also showed delegate Richard Van Dusen, R-Birmingham, later Gov. George Romney's legal aide, saying:

"We made it very clear in the committee report that a flat rate income tax could be made the subject of exemptions by the legislature."

The address to the people, drawn up by the convention after it drafted the Constitution said:

'The legislature could prescribe reasonable exemptions for a flat rate tax."

"Thus it is undisputed that the people in approving the Michigan Constitution of 1963 clearly intended that the legislature possess the power to grant exemptions from any flat rate income tax imposed..." Kelley said.

Clean Water Demand Grows

LANSING (AP)—What do you use water for?

Drinking, taking a bath, swimming, boating and fishing would be the fastest answers by the average person.

But there also are a number of other uses, reminds the State Water Resources Commission—such as waste disposal; municipal, industrial and domestic supply; artificial lake development; commercial fish production; commercial navigation, and aesthetic enjoyment.

The pressures are growing on water use and the public is insisting on ever-improved water resource conditions, reports the commission.

By statute, the commission has the responsibility to "protect and conserve the waters" of Michigan's Water Wonderland.

Pollution control represents the heaviest demand and the commission has asked for added manpower in its current budget.

The commission asked for a general fund budget of $489,494 for the next fiscal year. Gov. George Romney has recommended a net general fund budget of $363,728, still an increase of $81,881 over the current fiscal year.

In addition, the department estimates some $178,000 will come from earmarked federal grants.

About $13,000 of the increase would be used to take care of the automatic salary increases obligated by State Civil Service directive.

Most of the rest of the money, the commission said, is needed to pay for additional manpower to meet the public demand for clean water.

Better laboratory facilities are needed, the commmission says, in hoping for legislative approval of the increase.

Other uses for the added money are listed as addition of a water pollution investigation, a civil engineer to work on water rights, more studies of stream flow deficiency where use pressure is increasing and establishment of a part-time position of water testing, particularly of bathing water.

Record Crowd At Talent Show In Rapid River

RAPID RIVER — A crowd of 400 people enjoyed the Rapid River P.T.A. Talent Show Saturday night. Joe DeMay, master of ceremonies, entertained the audience with his lively commentary and introductions. Vocal, instrumental and dramatic novelty acts were represented from the kindergarten through twelfth grade classes. Several of the performers appeared in costume making a colorful show. Individual acts were judged on talent, showmanship, audience reception, originality, imagination, costume, and staging.

First place awards in the elementary division went to Paul Sheedlo singing, "Whenever I Feel Afraid," accompanied by his father, Clarence Sheedlo; Peter Hayes, dressed in Swiss costume, played an accordian solo; a colorful skit number, "Coming Around the Mountain," was performed by Paul Groleau, Stanley and Maxine Constantino, Gail Sundberg, Cheryl Mead, and Jim Lundberg.

High School

High School first place winners were a vocal quartet, Geraldine Erickson, Sandra Sundstrom, Judy Johnson, and Lorraine Jacobson, singing, "The Wayward Wind," and an instrumental band number, "And I Love Her" performed by Glen Lamberg, John Parrett, Fred Cavill, and Jim Spriks.

Elementary division second place winners were a black faced top hat trio, Terry Johnson, Debbie Young, Kathy King, singing, "This Land Is Your Land"; Mary Sigfrids playing, "Two Jugglers, piano solo.

High School seconds were awarded to the Safford brothers, Tom, Klint, Dan, and sister, Jenny for their straw hat number, "Jenny"; Jane Ann LaCrosse's piano solo, "Moonlight Sonata," and a "Jackie Gleason" skit by Jeff McClinchy and Steve Lamberg. A special prize was presented to second grader, June Petonquet, for her expressive vocal solo, "Jesus Loves The Indian Boy."

Square Dancing

An added attraction to the evening's program were the Ensign and Brampton square dancers. The groups lively dance numbers called by Elmer Dahn delighted the audience. Fiddle and guitar music was played by Art Lorenson and Ione Groleau. Mr. and Mrs. Mike Majestic made the arrangements for the special act.

The evening's judges were Hagle Quarnstrom, Wallace Cameron, and Richard Hendricks.

Ticket sales showed a profit of $100, which will benefit the Rapid River Schools. Show plans were made by the P.T.A. project committee, Mrs. Herbert Lundin, Mrs. Frank J. Lundberg, Mrs. Ronald Sundberg, Mrs. Waldon Johnson, Jr., Mrs. Lloyd Stenlund, Mrs. Thomas Safford; assisted by Mrs. E. S. Venton, Mrs. Frank Smith, Mrs. Carl Beyne, Mrs. Ray Phillips, Norman Slough, Walter Peters, Hank Lundberg, Glen Lundin, Cynthia Safford

BEST SAFETY record in the Mead Corpora tion's paper group was recognized with presentation of a safety award to Mead's Esca naba Division. Discussing the employes' outstanding safety record are (from left) Floyd Forsberg, Leonard Van Drese, Division Manager George S. Douglas, John Schroeder and John Peterson.

Safety Award Won By Mead

The Escanaba Division of the Mead Corporation received the H. E. Whitaker Safety Award for compiling the best safety record during 1964 in The Mead Corporation Mead Papers Group.

The Escanaba Division competed for the award with eight plants in five states. In 1964, the employes of the Division experienced only one lost time accident resulting in a frequency of 0.70 accidents for one million man hours worked.

Each of the Division's 609 employes will receive a duplicate of the famed award presented to the Escanaba Division, said George S. Douglas, Division manager.

Also, on Feb. 14, the employes of the Escanaba Division completed one million man hours without a lost time accident. On March 27, 1964, the employes of this division also worked one million man hours without a lost time accident.

Membership Unit Of Chamber Wins Directors' Praise

The Membership Committee of the Escanaba Chamber of Commerce, meeting for breakfast at the Delona Restaurant at 8 this morning welcomed into Chamber membership: Dr. Roger Beauchamp, City Drug Store, Delta Animal Hospital and Norge Cleaning Village. A commendation from John J. Mitchell, president read to the committee stated, directors had praised the committee for the fine results of your continuing membership campaign. "The monthly membership meetings have been very productive and have also helped to stabilize the existing membership."

Co-chairman Arthur Arch and Mel Oslund presided.

Briefly Told

The Morning Star Lodge will meet at the Odd Felolws Hall Thursday at 7:30 p. m. A pot luck lunch will be served.

Delta County Voiture 663 of the 40 and 8 will hold a regular promenad Thursday night, March 4, at 8:30 p. m. at the American Legion clubrooms, 928 N. 21st St.

Secretary Hare Calls 'Junkers' Highway Menace

LANSING (AP) — A recent newspaper advertisement by a used car dealer was cited Monday by Secretary of State James Hare as a solid argument in favor of compulsory motor vehicle inspection.

Some 1957 and 1958 used cars were advertised for as low as $97 each with weekly payments of as little as 93 cents, Hare said. Purchasers were advised they could buy one of the cars with no credit standing, as the ad stated: "good credit - bad credit - no credit."

Cars in poor repair sold for small amounts usually to youngsters who can't afford anything better, Hare said. Many insurance companies will not insure these cars and the youngsters can't afford insurance for them, he said.

"The combination of a young driver plus a dilapidated, out-of-repair old 'junker' can be a deadly one," Hare said.

Gospel Program At St. George Society Meeting

BARK RIVER — Colored slides with taped commentary on "The Baptism and Temptation" were a feature at Monday evening's meeting of St. George Rosary Society held in the parish hall. The slides illustrated the subject for the Gospel of the first Sunday in Lent.

Mrs. Ray Teal, president of the Escanaba Deanery of the Marquette Council of Catholic Women, gave a report on the Diocesan Board meeting she attended in Iron Mountain, Saturday and announced that the annual MDCCW convention will be held on Saturday and Sunday, May 1-2, at the Dickinson Hotel in Iron Mountain.

Plans were made to hold a spaghetti supper, Sunday, March 21, with serving to begin at 4:30 p. m. Mrs. Ray Teal is chairman. An nominating committee was appointed with Mrs. Stanley Bugay to act as chairman. The April program will be presented by the Spiritual Development Committee with Mrs. Rodger Quist in charge.

In other business, Mrs. Leonard Veeser, president of the Society, expressed thanks to all who contributed to the success of the bake sale held Valentine's Day after each of the three Masses. Ladies who assisted with the sale were Mesdames Tom Morin, Harold DeLoughary, Antone Cavadeas, Henry Bonjean, Ellsworth Nault, Leonard Veeser and Tom DeLoughary.

Mrs. Alex Joracz will be chairman of the Lady of Fatima Circle which will function in April. The guest prize was won by Mrs. Peter Couillard. Lunch was served by members of St. Agnes Circle with Mrs. Harold DeGrave as chairman.

Death Takes Mrs. Rokosky

GARDEN — Mrs. Paul Rokosky, 80, of Garden died Tuesday in Schoolcraft Memorial Hospital where she had been a patient five weeks.

She was born Anna Rakus in Lithuania Oct. 12, 1884. She lived in Clarkburg, W. Va., and moved to Garden in 1916. Her marriage took place in West Virginia in 1912. Her husband died 33 years ago.

She was a member of St. John The Baptist Church at Garden.

Surviving are three daughters, Mrs. Anna Leckson and Miss Adella Rokosky of Garden and Mrs. Pauline Kozen of Donora, Pa., 12 grandchildren and 9 great grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held Friday at 9 a. m. from St. John the Baptist Church. Burial will be in the spring in New Garden Cemetery.

Friends may call at the Messier-Broullire Funeral Home in Garden starting at 3 p. m. Thursday. Liturgical prayers will be recited at 8 p. m. Thursday.

Sleeping Bear Park Bill Gets More Support

In response to inquiries concerning legislation to establish a Sleeping Bear Dunes National Park, which is pending before the Senate Interior Committee, Congressman Robert P. Griffin (9th District, Michigan) said "considerable progress has been made since the first legislation in 1961. Much of the highly developed property has been excluded from revised versions of the bill.

"It is my expectation, as well as my hope, that this matter which has aroused so much controversy throughout Michigan will finally be resolved this year, or, at least, in this 89th Congress.

"I shall continue to press, however, for important amendments.

Under the bill as still written, a property owner can be subject to the threat of condemnation without knowing when or if the federal government will actually take over his property and pay him for it. I believe that the constitution entitles a property owner to better treatment than that.

"I am also concerned about the adverse effect of this legislation on two local school districts in the Sleeping Bear region, both of which have issued long-term bond issues to pay for the construction of new school facilities. When the federal government — or any government for that matter—takes over property within a school district and takes it off the local tax rolls, I believe that the government has an obligation to make payments-in-lieu of taxes to the local school districts until pre-existing outstanding bond issues are paid off."

Court Erases Lawsuit Rule

LANSING (AP)—The age-old doctrine of governmental immunity—deteriorating gradually in recent years—crumbled further Monday when the Michigan Supreme Court ruled:

"The rule of governmental immunity as to all political subdivisions of government is hereby abrogated" in regard to injury suits.

In a 5-2 landmark decision, the high court ruled that Genesee County Memorial Hospital and county officials could be sued for the death of 7-year-old Sharon Myers Feb. 28, 1961, the day after a tonsilectomy.

Delores Myers, administratrix of the girl's estate, asked for $250,000 damages.

Law Effective July 1

The controlling opinion, written by Justice Michael O'Hara, got a four month lead on the legislature, which passed a law last year to make uniform the liability of cities, political subdivisions, the state and its agencies. The law becomes effective next July 1.

The court objected to discrepancies in present state law and practice, which exempt the state and its agencies from damage suits arising from negligence.

"Subdivisions of government, except municipal corporations, immune when functioning 'governmentally,' but not 'proprietarily,' and municipal corporations are without any governmental immunity, as to tort liability," it said.

O'Hara was joined by Chief Justice Thomas Kavanagh and Eugene Black — Black concurring only in the result.

Justices Paul Adams and Theodore Souris wrote a separate opinion, saying they could not subscribe to the opinion, but that they joined in the result—the vacating of a summary judgement for the county and remanding the case to Judge Donn Parker of Genesee County Circuit Court.

No City Liability

Justice Otis Smith, formerly of Flint, did not participate in the opinion.

In a related unanimous opinion the court ruled a city cannot be held liable for poorly maintained sidewalks within the right-of-way of a state highway.

The court upheld Judge Stewart Newbaltt of Genesee County Circuit court in ruling against a Flint woman, Gladys Dittmar, who sued the city for injuries suffered when she tripped over a raised sidewalk slab in 1963.

The court pointed to a 1959 amendment of state law which said:

"On and after Jan. 1, 1960, the cost of constructing, improving and maintaining trunkline highways shall be met entirely by the state and the counties, townships and incorporated cities and villages shall. . .be relieved of all expenses and legal liabilities in connection therewith. . ."

"It's phrasing leaves no doubt that the legislature intended to relieve cities of all liability. . ." the court said.

The 1964 law, however, specifically exempts the state highway department and county departments from liability for sidewalks.

The court complained in the earlier opinion of confusion in state law over who is liable and who isn't.

RECORD — The Soo Hornets matched the school's all time victory record by whipping Suomi twice over the weekend, 105-80 and 82-58 . . . That gave Coach Jack Brighton's cagers 19 victories against 4 defeats . . . Pat Groleau of Nahma contributed 18 points in the first game and 12 in the second to boost his season total to 363 with one contest to go.

★ ★ ★

TRICKS — Bruce Pasola, who will be in action here tonight with Coach Fred Boddy's Bishop Baraga Royals against Norway, was up to his old tricks in a 92-82 victory over Soo Loretto in the season finale . . . With the Royals training 78-74 and four minutes to go in the game, Pesola led a spirited rally with eight free throws and two field goals . . . He finished with 22 for the night.

★ ★ ★

CHAMPS—Coach Bill Howes' Rudyard Bulldogs, defending Upper Peninsula Class B champs, closed their season with a change of pace victory over Brimley, 75-46 . . . Rudyard featured a slowed-down style of play in previous action this season and finished the campaign with a 14-4 record . . . The Bulldogs begin district tournament action on their home floor tonight against the Manistique Emeralds.

★ ★ ★

GRAPPLERS—Don and Dave Roberts of Iron Mountain have qualified for the state wrestling finals to be held in Lansing this weekend, the first U.P. athletes to accomplish that feat . . . Don placed second at 103 pounds and Dave third at 112 in the regional tournament competition at Freeland last weekend.

★ ★ ★

CHANGE—When Coach Harold Johnson talked to the Escanaba Lions Club Monday night he reported that all his cagers were healthy and ready for action in the Class A district tournament at Marquette Saturday night . . . But by Tuesday noon he'd learned that Jerry Hanson had reinjured his knee, Dave Nyquist had the measles and Ray Anderson was also under the weather . . . The loss of any of those performers would be a severe blow for the Eskymos.

★ ★ ★

LINE—The line of type missing from the Escanaba Eskymo story in yesterday's basketball edition identified Paul Miller as Escanaba's leading scorer during the regular season with 169 points . . . In schools as large as Escanaba, sophomores rarely make the varsity squads in major sports, but this is an exceptional year in that respect . . . Miller is a sophomore as are Dave Nyquist and Jim Boyle.

Michigan Mentor Gets Great Gift

ANN ARBOR (AP) — "It's wonderful. I'm delighted," University of Michigan basketball coach Dave Strack said as he celebrated a certain share of the Big Ten championship and his 42nd birthday all at once.

He had just watched his Wolverines overwhelm Wisconsin 98-75 Tuesday night for their 12th straight conference victory. Michigan now is 20-2 overall.

Only Minnesota, 10-2, has a chance to catch the top-ranked Wolverines. One more victory and Michigan wins it outright.

The Wolverines play Minnesota here Saturday and finish up at Ohio State Monday. If they win both, the U-M squad will be the first since Ohio State in 1961 and Illinois in 1943 to go through the league season without a loss.

"But they'll be tough," warned Michigan star Cazzie Russell, named Tuesday night to the Associated Press All America team. "they are going to be gunning for us. Everyone wants to get a crack at Michigan."

But, Russell added, "I think we've got a pretty good chance."

Russell dumped in 24 points for the Wolverines and dominated the offense with his flashing speed.

Big Bill Buntin chipped in 20 points and snared 20 rebounds. He shored up the Michigan defense like the Rock of Gibraltar, controlling the backboards and dominating the jam-ups under the basket.

Larry Tregoning fired in 18 points for the Wolverines.

Michigan started slowly and trailed 10-3 in the first four minutes.

"We didn't start out tonight very well," said Strack. "We seem to be really slow starting against teams we fell we can defeat easily."

Asked if he issued any special instructions after the poor start, Strack laughed. "I just told them to get moving, to get going on the backboards," he said.

Michigan did. Russell scored two field goals and Tregoning dumped in one to make it 12-10 with seven minutes gone in the first half and Michigan never was headed again.

The Wolverines led 40-31 at the half and in the second half ran to a 20-plus point margin most of the way.

Hermansville, Garden Win First Tournament Games

Garden and Hermansville became the first area teams to capture victories in district basketball tuornament competition.

Coach Dave Pelletier's Garden Jets measured Engadine 63-47, in the Class D district opener at Manistique Tuesday night. They will advance to the Thursday night semifinals, meeting Nahma at 8:30. Grand Marais meets Cooks at 7.

Coach Don Hill's Hermansville Redskins, co-champs of the Big Seven circuit, bombed Amasa 96-60 in the Class D kickoff at Powers-Spalding last night. The return to action Thursday night at 7 to face the Bark River-Harris Broncos.

Engadine gave Garden a battle in the first half, trailing 18-11 at the end of the initial period but rallying to cut the deficit to 30-25 at halftime.

The Jets, who had trimmed Engadine 74-38 in the regular season finale, took command in the third quarter and outscored the Eagles 33-22 in the second half.

Personal fouls destroyed any chance for an upset by Coach Rod Carlson's Eagles. They committed 23 personals and lost Jerry Wicker, Dave Frazier and Clarence Boucha before the final buzzer.

Garden made the most of Engadine's fouls, hitting on 21 of 32 opportunities from the free throw line. The teams were all-even from the field with 21 goals each, but Engadine added only 5 of 14 gift shots.

Barry Rochefort, Garden's superb 6 foot senior, popped in 26 points to lead the Jets. He canned nine field goals and clicked on 8 of 9 free throws. Darrel LaVigne backed him up with a dozen points. Dick Salter and Boucha shared 27 points for Engadine.

Ron Povolo, Upper Peninsula scoring champion this year, was held to under 20 points for the first time in 32 games, getting 17 against Amasa. But the Redskins displayed great balance with six players in double figures, headed by sophomore Doug LaCoursier with 29 points on 14 field goals and a free throw.

Hermansville opened with a tight press and it began paying off midway in the first period when the Redskins broke through for easy layups enroute to a 20-10 lead. By halftime they had it wrapped up, 52-25. Hill substituted freely throughout the contest and eight players gained the scoring column. LaCoursier scored 17 of his 29 points in the first half.

Amasa's Gerald Hautala, one of the top point producers in the Peninsula this year, put on a fine shooting demonstration. He hit nine field goals and the same number of free throws for 27 points.

Benton Harbor Wins Opener

By The Associated Press

Defending Class A champion Benton Harbor exploded into District Tourney play with a 97-55 victory over Portage Tuesday and Grand Rapids South, the No. 4 ranked team in the final Associated Press high high school basketball poll, was bounced by ninth-rated cross-town rival Ottawa Hills 73-67.

South was the second rated team to be eliminated from the 40th annual Michigan High School Athletic Association basketball tourney as District wars moved into their second day. Third-ranked Hamtramck throttled fifth-rated Ferndale 85-61 Monday.

Alpena, rated No. 6, got 25 points from Harvey Marlett to outlast Midland 80-71, Waterford edged Bloomfield Hills 62-59 in another overtime thriller with Rich Ziem netting 26 for the victors, and Detroit Cody upset Detroit Chadsey 66-44, after losing twice to Chadsey in regular season play.

At Niles, L. C. Bowen netted 38 points as Benton Harbor roared to its 28th straight victory over two years in ousting defenseless Portage.

John Pierucki's 22 points gave Ottawa Hills the decision over South at Grand Rapids. Lee Lafayette of South led all scorers with 23 points.

McCracken Quits Indiana Basketball Coaching Job

By The Associated Press

Dave Strack and Joe Mullaney, the basketball coaches at Michigan and Providence, respectively, enjoyed a nice Tuesday evening. It was different for Babe McCarthy, coach at Mississippi State, and for Branch McCracken, coach at Indiana.

Strack, observing his 42nd birthday, got a present of a 98-75 victory over Wisconsin from his nationally No. 1 ranked Wolverines, a triumph that cinched at least a tie for the Big Ten championship.

The 40-year-old Mullaney hit the 200-victory milestone of his career as his Friars, fourth-ranked in The Associated Press Poll, walloped Massachusetts 102-75.

In contrast, the veteran 57-year-old McCracken, coach at Indiana for 24 years, resigned effective at the end of the season. McCarthy, 41, also resigned, ending a 10-year tenure at Mississippi State.

Indiana has a 17-5 record with two games left. Mississippi State ended its season last Saturday with a 10-16 mark.

Cazzie Russell and Bill Buntin paced Michigan with 24 and 20 points, respectively, at Ann Arbor as the Wolverines won their 12th straight and upped their over-all mark to 20-2.

Michigan now can win the Big Ten crown outright by defeating Minnesota Saturday. The Gophers stayed alive Tuesday by beating Iowa on the road 78-70 behind Lou Hudson's 20 points. Michigan is 12-0 in conference play and Minnesota, sixth-ranked in the AP poll, is 10-2.

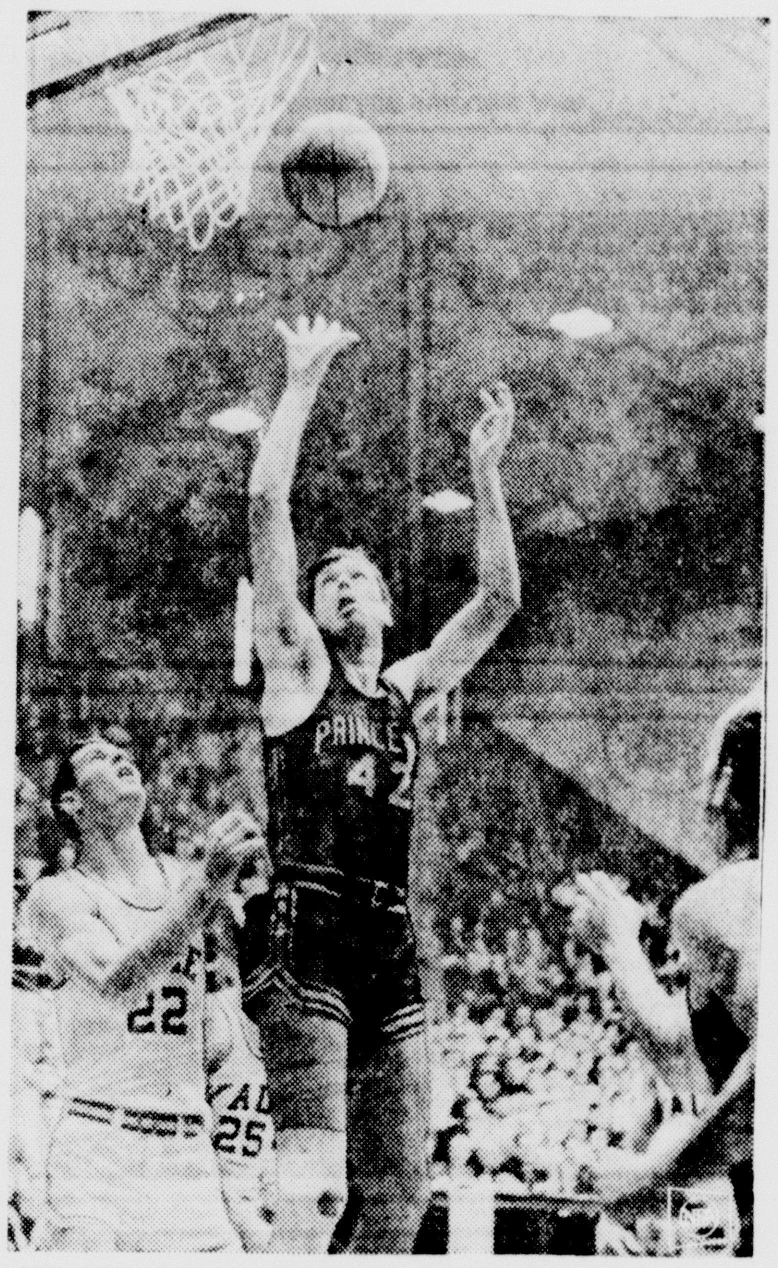
Jim Walker and Dexter Westbrook each flipped in 21 points for Providence as the once-beaten Friars closed out their home season with a 21-1 record. The Friars play at Brown Friday before taking on West Virginia in the first round of the NCAA tournament at Philadelphia Monday.

Texas A&M upset Southern Methodist with a home court 94-81 victory and enabled the Texas Longhorns to tie SMU for second place in the Southwest Conference. Texas, playing at home, defeated Texas Christian 84-63.

The runner-up team in the SWC will go to the NCAA tournament since Texas Tech declared itself out of tournament consideration last week because of an ineligible player.

Thursday's Arkansas at SMU and Texas at Baylor games probably will decide the SWC NCAA representative. SMU and Texas each are 9-4 in league play with Baylor right behind at 8-5. Baylor defeated Rice 79-72 Tuesday.

Detroit, bound for the NIT in New York, defeated Marquette 90-76 at Milwaukee. In other games, Illinois downed Northwestern 93-70 at Evanston, Bradley crushed North Texas 102-77 at Peoria and Missouri whipped Nebraska 84-66 at Columbia, Mo.



IT'S UNANIMOUS—Princeton's Bill Bradley (42) was the only unanimous choice on the NEA All-America basketball team which is selected by the nine National Basketball Association coaches.

Bradley Named Better Cager Than Russell

NEW YORK (AP) — Bill Bradley, Princeton's two-time All-America, was named the college basketball player of the year by The Associated Press today.

The 6-foot-5 senior from Crystal City, Mo., who has led Princeton to three straight Ivy League titles while setting all-time Ivy records galore, won by a whopping 116-30 margin over Cazzie Russell of Michigan in voting by 216 sports writers and broadcasters.

Bradley and Russell also were one-two in the separate balloting for the 1965 All-America, announced by The AP Tuesday. This balloting was much closer with Bradley getting 993 points on 197 firsts and four seconds. Russell tallied 964 points on 186 firsts and 17 seconds.

Five points were given for a first-team vote in the All-America voting and two points for a second-team nod, while just single votes counted in the player-of-the-year tally.

Named to the All-America first team, along with Bradley and Russell were Rick Barry, the nation's individual scoring champion from the Miami, Fla., Hurricanes; Gail Goodrich of UCLA's defending national champions; Fred Hetzel of Davidson and the late Wayne Estes of Utah State.

Estes was named to the All-America posthumously. He died Feb. 8 when he accidentally came in contact with a high-voltage wire.

Hetzel, who led Davidson to 23 straight victories before West Virginia upset the Wildcats in last week's Southern Conference championship tournament, was third in the player-of-the-year balloting with 12 votes.

Rounding out the top 10 were Barry with seven votes; Goodrich and Estes five each, Clyde Lee of Vanderbilt, A.W. Davis of Tennessee and Dave Stallworth of Wichita, three each, and Skip Thoren of Illinois, two.

Henry Finkel of Dayton, Billy Cunningham of North Carolina, Willie Somerset of Duquesne, Flynn Robinson of Wyoming, Steve Vacendak of Duke and Oliver Darden of Michigan received one vote each.

Detroit Rally Tops Warriors

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Tournament-bound Detroit rallied in the second half with some fancy shooting to defeat stubborn Marquette 90-76 Tuesday night before a small crowd of 4,240.

The Titans encountered a stiff struggle before edging in front to stay midway through the second half. They finished with a shooting mark of 53.7 per cent on 36 field goals in 67 attempts in ending their regular season with an 18-7 record.

Marquette, owner of a lowly 8-17 mark, put up a game struggle before being overpowered by the Titans, tuning up for the National Invitation Tournament.

Detroit had a tremendous height advantage, but managed only a 48-47 edge in rebounds. However, its hot shooting in a balanced attack offset more than a dozen turnovers.

The Titans' five starters each scored in double figures. Dorie Murrey hit for 17 points, Lou Hyatt 16, Jim Boyce and John Watson 15 each and Terry Page 14.

Cage Stars Eye Coveted Trophy

HERMANSVILLE—In addition to fighting for the team championships in two classes, players participating in the 27th Annual Upper Michigan and Northeastern Wisconsin Amateur Basketball Tournament here March 20-21-23-24-26-27-28 will be seeking the Joe Rodman Memorial Trophy.

Named in honor of the late Joseph G. Rodman, founder of the tournament in 1936, the trophy will go to the outstanding performer of the meet.

Ray Neveau, who had a brilliant high school career at Niagara, and now a star performer with the Oshkosh State Teachers College squad, received the Rodman award last year while leading the Niagara Lanes to the Class A Title. Ken Panzram a member of the Menominee Jozaitis Class B title winning team in 1955, is the only player from a Class B quintet ever to receive the trophy.

Winners of the Joe Rodman trophy in the past included: 1947—Bob Ranguette, Bark River Tom Swifts. 1948 — Thomas F. Dufour, Escanaba Delta Hardwares. 1949—Chic Gerrish, Soo Merchants. 1950—Harold Trewhalla, Negaunee Eagles. 1951—Don Lewis, Escanaba Kessler Bar. 1952—Bob Ellis, Negaunee Eagles. 1963—Bucky Lindsley, Green Bay Billygoats. 1954—Gary Lundin, Houghton Orangatangs. 1955—Ken Panzram, Menominee Jozaitis. 1956—Ray Trewhalla, Ishpeming Jaycees. 1957—Ray Trewhalla, Ishpeming Jaycees. 1958—Buck Lindsley, Green Bay Reliance Printers. 1959—Tom Villemure, Newberry Knauf Chevs. 1960—Stan Albeck, Menominee Jozaitis. 1961—Bob Pearce, Marquette Thermo Fax. 1962—Wayne Monson, Niagara Badgers. 1963—Wayne Monson, Oshkosh, Wisc. Two Nice Guys Fight Friday

CHICAGO (AP) — Two nice guys, lanky Ernie Terrell and seasoned Eddie Machen, meet in comparative privacy for the world Boxing Association's version of the heavyweight title Friday night.

"This one has been my toughest to publicize," Ben Bentley, a veteran tub-thumper for some 35 title fights, conceded Wednesday.

"There's Cassius Clay accepted as heavyweight champion outside the WBA. There's the great comeback showing of Floyd Patterson against George Chuvalo. And then, the weekend before our fight, we got the Black Muslim convention and Clay monopolizing the Chicago press."

Bentley, publicity man for the erstwhile International Boxing Club, said the fact that neither the 6-foot-6 Terrell, a Chicagoan, nor the 32-year-old Machen, father of four from Redding, Calif., was a "character," in or out of the ring, also hindered dramatizing their 15-round bout at the International Amphitheatre.

Terrell, ranked No. 1 by the WBA, has won his last 12 fights and owns 36-4 record, including 18 knockouts. Machen, No. 3 in the WBA list, has a 47-5-2 record, including 29 knockouts.

Form Holds Up In Baseball's Spring Camps

By The Associated Press

Baseball's annual spring fling is two days old and, so far, form is holding up in the far-flung training camps.

It rained in Florida Tuesday. Arizona was frigid. Half a dozen players couldn't get out of Latin America. The big question seemed to be "Who's on first?" and one answer was:

"I'm not conceding him a thing. All I want is an equal opportunity. . ."

Frank Thomas issued the challenge to newcomer Dick Stuart at Philadelphia's Clearwater, Fla., base after extolling Stuart's virtues as a hitter and — despite his reputation — glove man.

Stuart, acquired from Boston in a winter deal, is an all-round fine fellow who will help the Phillies win the National League pennant this time out, said Thomas, but the big slugger was not going to take his job away without a fight.

Stuart, meanwhile, was busy trying to make peace with Dennis Bennett, the young pitcher whom the Phils sent to Boston in the trade. Bennett is unhappy about Stuart's remarks that the Red Sox were cheated in the deal and that he probably paid more income tax money last year than Bennett drew in salary.

"The whole thing has been magnified and distorted," Stu said. "A lot of what I said was said as a joke, but the writer took me seriously."

First base also was the focal point at Miami and Pompano Beach, Fla., where Baltimore and Washington, respectively, hold forth.

Big Boog Powell, who hit 39 home runs for the Orioles last year as an outfielder, worked at first base, where Manager Hank Bauer plans to give him an extensive trial. Senators' pilot Gil Hodges drilled four aspirants — Bob Chance, Roy Sievers, Dick Nen and incumbent Joe Cunningham — at the bag.

The Pittsburgh Pirates disclosed that NL batting champion Roberto Clemente is hospitalized with malaria in Puerto Rico and will be unavailable for at least three weeks.

Julian Javier, only unsigned St. Louis Cardinal, was reported enroute from Puerto Rico to the world champions' camp but Roberto Pena, rookie Chicago Cubs' shortstop, was grounded in the Dominican Republic because of visa difficulties and several other players from Central and South America had not been heard from.

Men's Bowling Winners Named

The men's bowling tournament here has been completed with the Advisor team winning first place with 3074. Red Owl was second with 3051 and Hamms, third with 3001. Thirty teams, 85 doubles and 170 singles were entered.

Don Ott and Bill Larson took first place in doubles with 1313, followed by Don and Leon Duquette with 1298 and Harold Gilman and Herb Musselman with 1293.

In singles, John Demars was high with 685. Ace Ritter was second with 678 and George Chvala, third with 673. John Demars also was first in all-events. Dick St. Martin was second and Bill Brew, third.

The U.P. men's tournament will be held in Negaunee, beginning March 20-21. Inland, Denny, Knights of Columbus and Advisor teams will be competing the first weekend.

Library Plans County-Wide Poster Contest

To emphasize National Library Week and its theme of "Open Your Future-Read," the Manistique school and public library is sponsoring a county-wide poster contest.

The contest began March 1 and closes April 15. The Posters must be 14 x 20 inches with the name of the entrant in the upper right corner.

A first and second prize will be awarded in each category, which are for grades 3-4, grades 5-6 and grades 7-8.

Members of the Manistique Art Club will be the judges.

Snow Blower To Demonstrate

A demonstration of a snow blower by Painter Equipment Co. is scheduled here Friday.

The city has taken bids on new snow equipment, following breakdown in the 20-year-old equipment. The equipment has been repaired and this week is being used to clear snow from school areas.

Next week, Councilmen and the manager will inspect snow blowing equipment of Bark River Culvert & Equipment Co. in use in the Milwaukee area.

Briefly Told

The Atwater Extension Club meets at 8 p.m. Monday, March 8 at the home of Mrs. Marvin Frederickson.

The Merri-Makers Square Dance Club meets Saturday at 8 p.m. in the Lincoln gym.

State police are investigating the breaking and entering of a cabin of Arthur Kramer on Little Harbor road. Apparently nothing was taken.

Good Tourist Year Expected

"I look for this to be one of our better tourist years," reports Carl Graves, Chamber of Commerce secretary.

Requests for literature have been coming in rapidly since winter tourist and travel shows began, with 2,000 folders per month going out.

The requests this year have included some which requested accommodations for three, four, five and six couples, who plan to come up together for a summer vacation.

These may be a little harder to fill, as some resorts no longer have this many units available at one time in the coming season, due to early reservations, Graves indicated.

Shows in which the area is participating are Detroit Sportsmen and Vacation show, April 3-11, which will have 7,000 folders distributed; Indianapolis boat, sports and travel show, March 26 - April 24; Chicago National boat, travel and outdoor show, March 6-14; Milwaukee Sentinel Sports, Travel and Boat Show, March 20 - 28; Minneapolis Northwest Boat and Travel Show April 2.

The area has participated in the Chicago Sport and Vacation Show Feb. 12-21 and the Cincinnati Sport, Vacation and Boat show, Feb. 19-28.

Area persons assisting the U.P. Tourist Assn., with the booths are Mr. and Mrs. Loren Townsend, John Weiss and Ted Hentschell.

U.P. Women's Pin Tourney Starting

With a handsome new 8-lane automatic bowling alley, Manistique has become eligible for hosting U.P. pin tournaments and this weekend will begin its first, the U.P. Women's tournament.

Two hundred fifty teams, 22 from Manistique are entered in the tournament, expected to bring 1300 people into the community beginning Saturday and continuing on weekends until May 30.

Mrs. Glen (Pat) Erickson is secretary for the event and Mrs. Kenneth Osterhout is chairman of scorekeepers. Mrs. Harold Becks and Mrs. K. P. Eimmerman were co-chairman of schedule books. The tournament will be held at Ray Krusic's Lakeview Lanes.

Though Manistique is new in hosting tournaments, it has had ardent and top level bowlers for many years. They have brought home numerous awards.

Hoholik's Dairy team won first place in U.P. team events in 1955, Elsie Kasun and Agnes Brotherton won doubles in 1960, Sandy Saffer paired with A. Langdon of Iron River in 1964 to win doubles and Beatrice Nelson won all events in 1957 and singles in 1959.

Manistique Has Gain In Trade

Iron Mountain starts the new year ahead of Sault Ste. Marie in bank debits, which are checks against depositors accounts and thus an indication of business volume in a community.

The Sault was in a position of leadership among the cities of the Upper Peninsula for many years, but has suffered from loss of basic industry. Its debits still are high in the summer months when it benefits from its great attractions as a tourist center and gateway to Canada, but its winter volume of trade, as indicated by bank debits declines.

For January, reports the Federal Reserve Bank of Minneapolis, Marquette was in traditional first place among the cities of the U.P. and extending its lead with total debits of $24.2 million, a gain of 14 per cent over January, 1964.

Escanaba was in second place with $16.1 million, a loss of one per cent from a year ago. Iron Mountain was third with $14.7 million, a loss of 4 per cent, and the Sault was fourth with $12.8 million, a loss of 6 per cent.

The cities of the U.P. reports totaled $145.1 million in debits, the same as a year ago.

Manistique was among the star performers with debits of $4.8 million for a gain of 13 per cent over a year ago, topped only by Marquette and Hancock with gains of 14 per cent. Greatest loss was at Hermansville with debits of $853,000, a loss of 13 per cent. Gladstone with $2 million had a loss of 4 per cent and Menominee with $8.1 million gained 3 per cent. St. Ignace with $2.1 million was even with last year.

Ironwood had debits of $7.7 million, a loss of only 2 per cent despite its iron mining crisis, because of the boom in winter sports in that area.

Snow-Sled Race Draws Big Group

Leon Bowerman of Curtis was first in Class 15, Dr. C. L. Novak, in Class 20 and Charles Richey, in Class 25 in the first snow-sled races held here Sunday.

The competition included a race over a seven-mile course extending from the Lakehead office along Tannery road and down a power line back to the pipeline company office, plus a drag race on the hill and a slalom on the quarry.

Thirty-five entries were reported, with about 10 times that number turning out to witness the events sponsored by the Emerald City Motor Club.

The club, formed in 1960 also is planning a sports car rally, which will be considered at its meeting in the Youth Center tonight. The group meets there each Tuesday.

Also in plans are ice boating in winter, coupled with the club's usual summer go-kart shows. By mid-summer the group plans to have its paved track paid for.

The first five winners in Class 15, for units with 10 horsepower or less were: Leon Bowerman, Ken Wood, Dave Setterlind, Grant Taylor Sr., and Clarence Jaynes.

Winners in Class 20 for units with 10 horsepower or more, single-track as group 15, were: Dr. C. L. Novak, Lynn Watson, Fred Hinkson, Rudy Lawrence, and Bill Hough.

In Class 25 for doubletrack units, the winners were Charles Richey, Nrian Chartier, Phil Musselman, Bud Burton and Rick Pawley.

Trophies were presented by the club for the first three winners in each class. The club expressed its appreciation to the many who helped make the winter-time event successful.

DeMolay Installs New Officers

The George A. Shaw chapter of the Order of DeMolay installed officers for the spring term at a public ceremony Saturday evening in the Masonic Temple.

Victor J. Haas, past master of Lakeside Lodge 371, F&AM, and the first Dad Advisor of the chapter was installing officer.

He was assisted by J. Witter Reid, a past master of Lakeside Lodge, district deputy instructor and chairman of the advisory council, Edwin L. Carlson, secretary of the Council, William F. Mueller, George W. Rasmussen, past masters and Mrs. Orson Livermore, organist for Ida Chapter, O.E.S.

The three councilors are elected and other officers are appointed.

Miss Rosann Fleck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fleck, Indian Lake, previously-elected, was introduced as the new chapter sweetheart. The flower talk was given by J. Witter Reid.

Serving on the advisory council are George K. Bouschor, W. M., J. Witter Reid, P. M., Wayne Richards, Dad Advisor; Edwin L. Carlson, Charles Atwater, P. M., George Chvala, Shannon Hubble, Victor J. Haas, P. M., William Brew, William Males, Wilbur LaBar, Harry Purdy, Taisto Orhanen and William W. Hoar.

Following the program a reception was held in the dining room with Mrs. Bernard Brawley, chairman, assisted by Mmes. John Anderson, Victor Haas, J. Witter Reid, Lionel Vail, Arvid Nelson, Elmer Flodin and James Troxler. The event was well attended by members and friends.

District K-C Pin Tourney Is Held Here

The eighth annual Knights of Columbus district tournament was held Sunday at Lakeview Lanes with Escanaba re-capturing the John Matthews trophy.

The Escanaba team had 5489 total pins, Munising, 5487 and Manistique 5468.

Retarded Child Group Meets

The Schoolcraft County Assn. for Retarded Children met at the home of Mrs. Ludwig Hough and made plans for a "teen" dance March 5 in the old gym. Music will be provided by the Renegades.

Cards were played, with awards going to Mrs. Marvin Mercier and Mrs. Francis Hoholik, high, and Mrs. Lawrence Gardner and Mrs. Hough, low in 500. Mrs. Charles Fagan won the special award.

Lunch was served.

The next meeting is March 16 at Central school room 4.

Gulliver

The Doyle basketball team will play Germfask at Doyle school at 4 p. m., March 9.

School Program

Students of Doyle school presented programs Feb. 22 to honor Washington and Lincoln. Mrs. Patricia Hewitt accompanied them in opening the program with singing of "America", after which kindergartners presented a selection, wearing 3-cornered hats which they made. Mrs. Carol Marsh accompanied first and second graders in a song after they led the flag pledge.

Third and fourth graders carried a 13-star flag for their medley. Mrs. George Hettel directed some of her students in stories and poems after the singing. Participants included Wanda Snyder, Winch Diller, Timmy Burrell, Connie Smith and Vicki Frenette.

Fifth and sixth graders of Mrs. John Kelly presented a short play. Seventh and eighth grades, accompanied by Mrs. Marsh, presented two Civil War songs, displaying a Confederate flag made by David Whitcomb. Wayne Bjorkman displayed a 36-star flag of the U. S. in 1864, which he made, as the class sang "The Battle Hymn of the Republic. The song "This Land Is Your Land," closed the program.

Personals

Walter Davenport left Tuesday for his home in Hartford, Conn., after spending the past week visiting his mother, Mrs. Laura Davenport, and sister, Mrs. Neil Nygard and brother, Ellsworth Davenport and families.

Mrs. Robert Harbin is leaving this week for Rochester, Minn., where she plans to reside. She will be employed at the Methodist Hospital in Rochester. Mrs. Harbin has been with the Manistique Clinic for many years.

Tractor Stylist Has Tough Job

DETROIT (AP)—When an attractive new car passes by, the viewer's thoughts may turn to images of hard working stylists at their drawing boards, straining to keep ahead of the competition.

But, "It's surprising how few people realize the part styling plays in the tractor industry," says Al Mueller, a stylist for the Ford Motor Co.

Mueller has worked on both tractors and autos. And, he says, "styling tractors is more difficult than styling automobiles."

On a tractor, the stylist has less sheet metal to work with, he explains.

"Since most of the engine must be exposed for easy access by the operator, we confine our creative abilities generally to the front end, hood, fenders, and the instrument and control areas," Mueller adds.

"The farmer is getting more style conscious," says Dennis Heeney, an official of Massey-Ferguson Inc.

Because of a higher educational level, changed economic and social conditions, the auto and radio and television, Heeney says, "we're talking about a farmer — especially the larger one—who is little different from a city businessman.

"This makes him a more sophisticated buyer," he adds.

"His primary interest still is in the equipment's ability to perform. It's tied in with his earning capacity. If a tractor breaks down during a critical time, it's costing him money."

"But at the same time, the farmer is going to be influenced by the appearance of the unit."

Tractor owners, he says, "don't want gaudy frills but rightfully insist on a good looking functional design."

"But," he says, "we believe that some day they may be fully enclosed, all-weather vehicles quite unlike today's tractor."

Hospital

Admitted to Schoolcraft Memorial Hospital were Jerene Larson, 139 N. 2nd.; Ivon Mohn, Cooks; Edna Lester, Garden; Phyllis McRae, Rte. 1; Emil Knoph, 415 Delta; Beverly Shelly, Shingleton.

Discharged were Lucille Adamek, Jean Lustila, Tony Dufour and Vernon Bloomstrom.

Bridal Shower For Camille Chase

BARK RIVER — Bride-elect Camille Chase of Bark River, was honored at a miscellaneous shower at Potvin's Fireside Room in Schaffer. Hostesses were Mrs. Carl Witte and Mrs. Durward Chase Jr. of Escanaba and Mrs. Larry Bell of Iron Mountain.

Prize winners in 500 were Mrs. Vernon Dubrock, Mrs. Edward Lasnoski of Schaffer and Mrs. Robert Bell of Wilson Mrs. Edwin Hall of Bark River won the prize in smear and bunco winners were Mrs. Gerald Butryn, Schaffer, Mrs. Lawrence Bell, Wilson and Mrs. Joseph Butryn of Schaffer. Mrs. Robert Bell received the guest prize and Mrs. William Langtagne of Schaffer won the traveling prize.

The lunch table was centered with a flower arrangement in yellow and white, flanked with yellow tapers.

Mothers' Club Holds Meeting

RAPID RIVER — Mothers' Club of Rapid River Bay De Noc Elementary School met in the kindergarten room. Miss Loretta McCarthy, kindergarten teacher, explained the class' new arithmetic and reading books. The children will begin work with this new material. Miss McCarthy told of individual examinations which will be given to the children. The kindergarten children have completed a study of Mexico. Mexican sombreros and pottery made by the children decorated the classroom.

Folowing the classroom meeting, a lunch was served in the multi-purpose room. Homemade rolls and coffee cakes decorated with icing and red cherries were served by hostesses, Mrs. Roger Brannstrom, Mrs. Dan Pearson, Mrs. Gary Van-Effen, Mrs. Henry Vietzke and Mrs. Arthur Vogel.

Rosary Society

All women of the parish are invited to attend Rapid River St. Charles Borromeo Rosary Society's meeting Thursday, March 4, at 8 p. m. in the parish hall. The meeting will be preceded by recitation of the rosary in the church at 7:45 p. m.

Fellowship Today

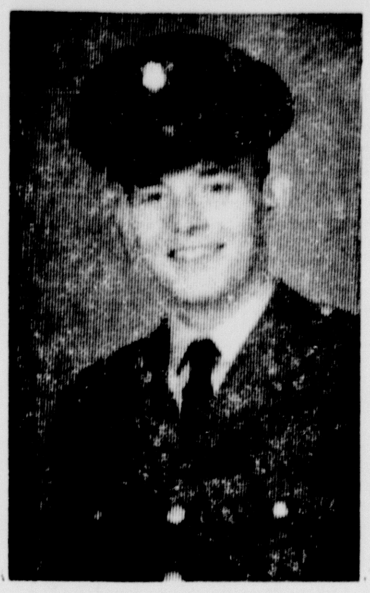
Women's Fellowship of Rapid River Congregational Church will meet today, March 3 at 8 p. m. in the parish hall. The fellowship will plan its March activities. All calendar money should be given to chairman, Mrs. Naomi Waters.

Lenten Services

Special Lenten services will be held at Calvary Lutheran Church today, Ash Wednesday, at 8 p. m. A nursery will be conducted by the Luther Leaguers in the church parish hall. Calvary Lutheran Church extends an invitation to the public to attend these Wednesday weekly Lenten services.

Special Meeting

A special afternoon meeting was held today at Rapid River Congregational Church. Rev. William T. Matters, minister of Christian Education of the United Church of Christ, East Lansing, conducted a survey of the Rapid River Sunday School. Mrs. Albert Bond, Mrs. E. Stanley Pyke, and Mrs. Thomas Safford represented the Congregational Sunday School.



PVT. RONALD W. Young, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Young, 615 Ludington St., has completed basic training at the U.S. Army Training Center, Ft. Knox, Kentucky. Young, a 1964 graduate of Escanaba Area High School, enlisted in December under the Army Guaranteed Technical School Program and chose the 600-hour course in engineer equipment maintenance. He is currently undergoing this training at Ft. Belvoir, Va.

Have you ever given thought to the reason that in the U.S. we drive on the right, while in England and other countries in Europe they drive on the left?

A Royal Auto Club official in Britain says the custom stems from an old practice. In days of yore when man walked or rode his horse on narrow roads and paths, a man would move to the left so that he could protect better with his strong right arm in the event he was put upon by wayfarers or robbers. This kept his sword arm between himself and the stranger who might have designs on his life o property.

It's rather curious that the custom didn't immigrate to the English colonies in America and evolve into left-side driving here.

The reason is the practice of walking on the left of a team of horses or oxen, or riding the left rear horse, to provide clearance between passing wagons on narrow and deeply pitted colonial roadways and trails.

Annual Service For East Delta Parishes Friday

GARDEN — World Day of Prayer services for the East Delta Parishes of the United Church of Christ will be held at Cooks Friday, March 5. Plans for the local observance of the day are being made by the Women's Fellowship of the Cooks Congregational church.

The Rev. Neil McShane will deliver the sermon in keeping with the World Day of Prayer theme, "What Doth the Lord Require?".

All interested persons are invited to attend. Services are scheduled to begin at 2 p. m.

Entertains Class

Keith Carley, 11-year-old amateur ventriloquist from Cooks, entertained the Sunday School class of the Congregational church recently. The class was enthusiastic in their applause of his talent and volunteered the proceeds from their Sunday school collection to him toward the purchase of a new doll to use in his act.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Kalishek and children of Negaunee spent the weekend at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Hattie Winter. Rebecca Bernier of Pontiac returned to Negaunee with them for a weeks visit.

Mrs. Pearl Heric returned to Manistique after visiting for a week at the home of her sister, Mrs. Blanche Joque. Mrs. Lucy Purtil of Manistique also was an overnight guest at the Joque home.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul O'Neil of Oconto visited Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Swaer.

Charlie Tatrow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Tatrow returned home Sunday from Schoolcraft Memorial Hospital where he had been a medical patient for a week.
